Clovechok Leads Flyers to Finals With Four Goals

Regina Caps Are Ousted From League Playoffs

By Stan Moher
Bulletin Sports Editor

Czechoslovakia has been much in the news of late and after the show staged by 'Handy Andy' Clovechok at the Arena Thursday night chances are the politically embattled country will remain out in front for sometime to come.

Clovechok—a sure-shooting son-of-a-gun when he gets within firing distance of an enemy net—turned in a blazing four goal effort to pace Flyers to a 5-3 win over Joe Fisher's Regina Caps.

The feat of the 23-year-old Czechoslovakian-born wingman opened wide for the locals the door into the Western Canada Hockey League finals. Listed now as unfinished business is the matter of mopping up the winner of the Calgary-Lethbridge series.

What was probably the season's largest crowd watched as the Clovechok-led Flyers toppled Caps for the third time in four tries since their best-of-five test got underway at Regina last week.

The offering failed to rate with certain others dished up as the regular schedule ran its course. But it had its moments, particularly when Frank Currie turned Clovechok loose to commit his mayhem at the expense of Johnny Sofiak, Caps' netminder.

For one period the tussle resolved itself into a personal duel between Clovechok and Ol' Joe Fisher, Regina's play-now-and-then coach.

VAN DEELAN INJURED

Fisher was forced to come off the bench when, at game time, it was discovered that "Dutchy" Van Deelan, hardrock left winger, was fighting a losing battle with an injured ankle. So the one-time hireling of Detroit Red Wings hurried into his puck togs and elected to hold down a pivot role between Ab McDougall and Bill Kyle.

Before he ran out of gas Fisher fired a pair of goals that kept his club in the fight during the early stages besides paving the way for Caps to take charge in 3-2 style early in the middle heat.

The visitors were still steaming along on the front end when successive penalties to their starry defence pair of Harvey Barnes and Vic Myles after the halfway mark had been reached in the second period provided the opening for which Flyers had been looking.

Barnes first was thumbed for tripping and he was hardly comfortably seated beside Timer Stan Morgan when Myles earned the ire of the officials by putting hands to the puck as he knelt on the ice after breaking up a Flyer raid.

It was a highly questionable call but the Flyers weren't displeased to quibble while Myles sweated it out beside his teammate. Clovechok teamed with Andersto. Doug Anderson and "Bing" Merluk for the counter that made it 3-3.

You could almost hear the steam zone out of the Caps as the light flashed the good news to the partisan house. Within a few minutes it became obvious that no WCHL pennant was to fly this season in Joe Dutkowski's Queen City Gardens.

SKATED CAPS INTO ICE

Flyers took charge to skate Caps into the ice in the latter stages. Before the second period ended Johnny Black sped wraithlike into the Regina goalmouth to tip Bill Maher's lay-up pass into the hatch to make it 4-2.

At 9:42 of the last stanza Clovechok rocked Caps with his fourth goal of the game to run the margin to 5-3. Any lingering hopes the visitors harbored of mounting a game-saving offensive went out the window then and there.

Caps were ready for the fork—they were done.

As Clovechok went about the business of administering the hotshot to beat Gus Kyle by the time of the fans whose memories serve them well undoubtedly gave thought to the difficulties he experienced earlier in the season. The ex-Vancouver Canuck came here touted as a sure-fire sniper and the record books bore out the rating.

What the record books did not point out is that Andy Clovechok is a slow starter. For three weeks to a month he shaped up as the prize disappointment of the season.

Then he began to click and last night's four-star performance saw him reach the heights.

EARLY START

At 5.50 of the first period he was on his way after Merluk had sent him clear of the pack with a timely pass. Sofiak had no chance as the rubber caught the top corner. Clovecok teamed with Doug Lane for his second marker and he had only to beat Gus Kyle by the time Lane turned over to him.

Fisher struck for a pair of tallies near the end of the period to make it 2-2 but off he tipped a long pass from Barnes in behind Al Rollina after which he roared down the right wing. Myles was within 10 feet of the Flyer hatch before cutting loose for No. 2.

Not long after the second period got underway Toby Brown shot Caps into the lead with a slap shot that caught the right corner.

Caps held on then until Barnes and Myles went away within seconds of each other. Clovechok got his third at this point. Black later slammed home what proved to be the winner, and the 'Handy Andy' guy iced the cake with the lone goal of the last period.

Prior to the start last night Mayor Ainlay took charge at centre ice to make presentations to Morey Rimstad and Doug Anderson of Flyers. The former received the Dr. W. Turnbull trophy as the league's leading scorer while Anderson took the CKUA award as a result of having the rookie-of-the-year laurels come his way.

Both received a tremendous hand.

Powers Will Sign Accord Wednesday

BRUSSELS, Belgium, March 12.— (AP) — Britain, France and the Benelux nations adopted today a 50-year treaty for a political, economic and military union of Western Europe intended to check the march of Communism.

Conference officials said the accord and allied documents will be signed next Wednesday by the foreign ministers of Belgium, Britain, France, Luxembourg and The Netherlands.

Text of the agreement will not be released until the signature ceremony, to give the five governments of the negotiators opportunity to examine it closely.

Delegates from the five countries, including four of the world's greatest colonial powers, completed their efforts on the western union suggested in January by Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin after more than a week around the conference table.

Sir George Rendel, chief of the British delegation and Britain's ambassador here, said upon emerging from the conference room that the delegates had agreed among themselves not to communicate any of the substance of the treaty before their governments approve it.

Questioned as to whether the treaty provided for a permanent five-power commission to carry out its provisions, Sir George shook his head.

"CANNOT TALK"

"That," he said, "is one of the things I just cannot talk about."

The treaty is reported to contain a preamble and 10 clauses and was believed to bind the five countries to mutual assistance in the face of aggression, mutual aid in the economic field, co-operation in improving their living standards and a measure of co-ordination of colonial resources.

Housing Deal Is Given OK

National defence department's $500,000 housing project to provide accommodation for RCAF personnel at Edmonton's airport will start within 30 days.

Announcement of agreement between Dominion department and the City of Edmonton of terms covering this project was made Friday by Mayor Harry Ainlay.

Fifty houses, each costing approximately $8,000 will be erected in the triangular area between Kingsway, 119 street and 115 avenue.

The Dominion government also will pay costs of sewer connection, installation of all services, and construction costs of roadways, sidewalks and other facilities to serve the district. The city is deeding the land to the Dominion at a nominal figure.

Agreement provides for payment of $300 to city if houses are sold, the estimated value of each lot.

Provision is made also for educational facilities for children of RCAF personnel in the agreement.

The election, in a middle-class London suburb, was held to fill a vacancy caused by the retirement of H. U. Willink.

It was the 30th by-election since the 1945 general elections. The Conservatives have lost no seats in that time and have gained one from the ruling Labor party.

EXCLUSION ORDER IS PROTESTED

Mine Workers Riled By Ruling on Voting

United Mine Workers of America members are taking exception to government ruling prohibiting workers employed at Star-Key mine before coal strike of from voting on a bargaining agent, Thomas A. McCloy, district representative, UMWA said today.

Present workers at the mine vote Monday on a bargaining agent, according to word received by McCloy from Clayton Adams, chairman of industrial relations board, the mine union official said.

According to a statement received by McCloy, only employes presently employed at the mine will be entitled to vote, he said.

McCloy points out that under the labor act any person employed before a strike shall be deemed to be an employe. "Therefore," McCloy states, "if there is any vote to be taken of employes of Star-Key mine, all the men listed on the company payroll before the work stoppage of January 14 are deemed to be considered as employes and should be entitled to vote."

Only a small majority of miners employed at the mines before the strike are still working there.

"C. E. Gerrie (minister of trade and industry) and his board of industrial relations, in allowing this vote at Star-Key mine have determined to apply to satisfy one coal operator and a few, of his employes neglecting the wishes and desires of practically all mine workers of the district," McCloy said.

"Their action is in complete disregard of provisions set out in the Alberta Labor Act," he concluded.

Statement by Mr. Gerrie that the UMWA has been acting as bargaining agent without proper authority "is an act clearly showing the anti-labor character of the present Social Credit government," it was charged in a statement today by Labor-Progressive party.

Only five remained in jail when Costello was elected premier Feb. 18. Two later were released because of ill health. Unexpired sentences of the remaining three were remitted this week.

He pictured the meeting as a further development of the policy described in a March 6 Soviet note to the United States, France and Britain—"transformation of Western Germany into a military base for aggression against the U.S.S.R."

CALGARY BRANDED CITY OF 7 SINS

Calgary is the home of the seven deadly sins if Arthur Wray (SC Banff-Cochrane) is to be believed.

Bookmakers operate openly, he charged during budget debate on law enforcement, while drunken men stream blood as they fall from beverage rooms or are dragged down streets by police.

Visitors to Calgary may see these things at any time, he insisted.

LEADERS IN MONTREAL TAKING SIDES

Vice-Buster's Suspension May Bring Big Showdown

MONTREAL, March 12.—(CP)—Religious and civic leaders were taking sides today over the suspension of Assistant Director of Police Pacifique Plante—greatest vice-buster Montreal has ever known—as a wide-open showdown between "Pax" and Director Albert Langlois loomed around the corner.

Langlois suspended Plante and his chief henchman, Lieutenant Armand Courval, yesterday for "insubordination and refusal to obey an order" when called to take part in the departmental trial of three morality squad officers accused of immorality.

While the city executive committee was known to stand behind Director Langlois on grounds the suspension was purely a departmental matter of discipline, supporters of Plante claimed that it was an attempt to force the "crusader" to resign.

City Council Leader Pierre Desmarais, the chamber of commerce, the board of trade and the president of the federation of the Sacred Heart Leagues, a Catholic action movement, issued statements last night alleging Plante's suspension was an indirect result of his successful campaign to clean up the metropolis.

City hall observers said today that there was a strong possibility that Plante's suspension might end within a day or two and that this was the only way that a showdown could be averted.

The move has equal also expressed its confidence in Plante when more than 35 of its members asked for transfer to other duties.

Plante's suspension is the first stop in his meteoric rise from a recorder's court clerk to the No. 2 spot on the police force.

MONTREAL, March 12.—(CP)—Montreal's suspended assistant director of police, Pacifique Plante, today told a press conference that about six weeks before his suspension yesterday, "I was warned that my days in the police department were numbered unless I agreed to play ball.

"It was emphasized that this was the last warning I would get. It appears the warning was well founded."

Vafiades Demands Release of Rebels

ATHENS, March 12.—(BUP)—Gen. Markos Vafiades, Greek guerrilla leader, threatened today to execute a group of captured Greek Army officers unless more than 100 guerillas seized after the recent shelling of Salonika are freed within 48 hours.

Vafiades broadcast his ultimatum to the Greek Army over the guerilla radio. He named six of seven officers who he said would be executed if the ultimatum were ignored. The officers were captured recently in Northwest Greece.

He said the Greek Army's "American-led" spring offensive against guerrillas in Macedonia already had started in Epirus. The guerillas repulsed the attacks there, Vafiades added.

The guerilla campaign, he said, will be extended to all parts of Greece, including Athens, and will be waged by air and sea as well as by land.

Mystery Letters Tell of Murder

"Damn Chink Had It Coming", Unknown Writer Tells RCMP

CALGARY, March 12.—(CP)—Two anonymous letters to the RCMP which referred to the murder of a "damn Chink on 2nd St. E." who "had it coming," supposedly written by an infuriated husband, were read in police court yesterday at the resumed preliminary hearing of a murder charge against Bernice Dubensky, 20-year-old Calgary girl.

Charge was laid in connection with the death of Charlie Mah Wing, 50-year-old Chinese tailor, in the rear of his shop at 1107 2nd St. E. last June 25.

After the mystery letters were produced in court, an RCMP handwriting expert testified he was of the opinion that they were written by the same person who wrote exhibits 41, 42, 43 and 44. These were samples of handwriting taken by detectives from Miss Dubensky.

"HAD IT COMING"

The first letter, addressed to the RCMP, the envelope of which bore June 28, 1947, read as follows: "Chink had it coming. The law will do nothing for soldiers coming back from overseas, so we do it ourselves. I can't have my wife going around with a . . . Chink. Have respect for RCMP and will give it over to you boys. If you get the wrong man I'm staying around.

The second note dated July 26, 1947, also addressed to the RCMP and read to court by Const. James Lambe, was as follows: "Thanks for leaving this man go. I killed the damn Chink on 2nd St. E. and there is one more to come soon. No yellow is getting my wife's love. Come boys and good hunting."

TAGGED "IMPORTANT"

"Important" was written on both envelopes according to the evidence.

Sgt. Hubert Radcliff, RCMP crime detection laboratory, Regina, and document examiner testified he was of the opinion that the above letters were written by the same person who wrote samples of handwriting taken by the detectives from Miss Dubensky after she was placed in a cell.

Hearing will continue March 19.

YOU BET, JUDGE, IT'S JUST LIKE KOOCHIE DANCE

NEW YORK, March 12' —(AP)—The words "bumps and grinds" — used to describe a dance routine — had Justice Morris Eder puzzled yesterday.

The expression was used by Lawyer Leonard Katlin in opposing a petition by Dancer Georgia Sothern to compel police to issue her a cabaret identification card, so she can continue to work at the Club Samoa.

"What?" exclaimed Justice Eder when Katlin said her dance consists of "bumps and grinds."

The lawyer spelled each word, then explained that "bumps" consisted of "thrusting and jerking the middle portion of the torso in a violent manner and repeated very often and fast." A "grind" he said was "twisting the torso in a circular motion."

"Like the old koochie koochie dance?" asked the justice.

"Yes, that's exactly it," Katlin replied.

Justice Eder reserved decision.

Quebec Union Not Acceptable

REGINA, March 12.—(CP)—Dr. J. N. Haldeman, president of the Saskatchewan Social Credit League, said last night that Quebec Unions des Electeurs showed "strong Communist and Fascist tendencies which are not acceptable to the Social Credit movement in Canada."

"It is necessary for us to fight these things within our own movement before we can fight them successfully outside the movement," he said in an address prepared for broadcast over a local radio station (CKCK).

Dr. Haldeman said the Canadian Social Credit Association insisted that any organization connected with it must use democratic methods and "this the Quebec organization has refused to do."

"The dictatorial set-up of the union of electors is no more acceptable to the democratic-minded French-speaking Canadians than to the rest of us."

During the year from July, 1946, to August, 1947, 23 per cent of Britain's loan from the United States was spent for food.

Co-Operative Farming For Veterans Sought

SASKATOON, March 12.—(CP)—Resolution urging federal government to amend Veterans' Land Act to enable veterans to pool their grants for farming land on a co-operative basis was approved yesterday at the closing session of the Co-operative Union of Canada.

Union also urged the federal government to remove what delegates termed the discrimination against co-operative housing societies.

A Saskatchewan delegate told the congress the only co-operative farms were in his province and it was slanderous to charge that veterans at Matador, Sask., for example, were Communists and operating a communal farm.

HOUSING QUESTION

On the housing question, delegates said one of the greatest difficulties facing co-operatives in the building of homes was finances. The National Housing Act had been passed to provide assistance in financing low and medium-cost houses, but the congress said it discriminated against co-operative housing groups by failing to make available to them loans at as advantages rates as were available to others.

Regina Butcher Gravelled Roads

REGINA, March 12.—(CP)—A. W. Embury (Armed Services) said in the legislature last night that the president of the East Regina CCF association had been given highway-gravelling contracts by Saskatchewan's CCF government.

He charged that a Mr. Schan, a Regina butcher, was given contracts for gravelling roads although he "is not a contractor and don't know the first thing about the business. He owns no gravelling equipment of any sort of description."

(Last May Highways Minister J. T. Douglas said K. Schan of Regina was paid $4,641.74 for gravelling 17.5 miles of highway. The information was given in answer to a question by opposition leader W. J. Patterson.)

Speaking in the budget debate, Mr. Embury said Premier Douglas' allegations that Acme Dye and Chemicals Ltd., was a dummy corporation designed to bolster Liberal party funds at public expense were "not specially reliable."

Sask. Govt. May Probe Dye Sales

REGINA, March 12—(CP)—Provincial Treasurer C. M. Fines said yesterday the Saskatchewan government may "proceed on its own" to investigate sales of aniline dye by Acme Dye and Chemicals Ltd., to the Liberal government of Ex-Premier W. J. Patterson.

"If there is any question in the minds of the public that something underhand was done we may take steps ourselves to have the matter investigated," Mr. Fines said.

Both he and Premier T. C. Douglas said Wednesday the government would appoint a royal commission or proceed with a legislative investigation if the opposition requested into the premier's charges that Acme Dye and Chemicals was a dummy corporation to bolster Liberal campaign funds with profits from dye sales to the Patterson government.

Eight Face Charges Calgary Cafe Strike

CALGARY, March 12. — (CP) — Charged with unlawfully watching and besetting the strike-bound Commodore cafe in downtown Calgary, two men and six women marching in a picket line were arrested by city police yesterday.

Waitresses at the cafe went out on strike Tuesday morning in protest against the dismissal of one waitress. An injunction was issued later in the day restraining pickets from interefering with the restaurant's business.

Arrested were: Grant McHardy, Robert Edge, Labbetta Speckmaier, Marie Lane, Evelyn Webb, Pauline Bandurk, Olive Field and Martha Lavallie.

Warrants executed by the police were sworn out on the information of R. H. Starr, cafe stockholder. The defendants will appear in city police court Friday.

The arrests were conducted without disturbance. Inspector Larry Artridge who was in charge of the four-man police detail explained to the pickets that he had warrants for their arrest and they filed into the three prowler cars without protest. The operation was over in a couple of minutes.

SECRETARY OF LOCAL

McHardy is secretary of the local of the Hotel and Restaurant Workers Union (AFL) to which the striking waitresses belong while Edge, an electrician by trade, is understood to be a former member of the union.

A warrant was also issued for the arrest of Gordon Wray, union business agent, but Wray was not on the picket line when the police arrived. When he returned from making a purchase and learned of the arrests he went to the police station and surrendered voluntarily arriving about five minutes after the others.

Bail for Wray and McHardy was set at $2,000 each while bail of only $25 was asked for Edge and the six women. Those on bail of $25 were released about 7 p.m. after having supper in jail.

ARRESTED AT HOME

About 8 p.m., Lena King, another picket, was arrested at her home by two detectives and taken to police headquarters. She was released immediately on bail of $25.

Wray, McHardy, Speckmaier, Lane, Webb and King face two charges laid under the Criminal Code—unlawfully "watching and besetting" the cafe premises and disobeying a lawful court order. Edge, Bandurk, Field and Lavallie are charged with unlawfully watching and besetting only.

Hutterite Land Ban Opposed

WINNIPEG, March 12.—(CP)—Members of the Manitoba Legislature yesterday concurred unanimously with report of a special committee which felt no restriction should be placed on the right of Hutterites to purchase new land.

The committee was established during the last session of the house to investigate Hutterite colonies in the province.

George Renouf (PC—Swan River) who was chairman of the special committee, said the Oakville Man., board of trade had made it known that it was dissatisfied with the report because it did not restrict the right of the sect to buy more land.

Mr. Renouf said the committee had reached the conclusion that it should not try to restrict the right of Hutterites "or anyone else" to buy land. The main complaint against the sect had been that its members were buying much of the available farm land in areas from which complaints had come.

A dry cellar will not usually smell musty, but a little chloride of lime will make any mustiness disappear.

Manitoba "Correct" In Opposition To Freight Boost

WINNIPEG, March 12.—(CP)—Events have established that Manitoba was correct in opposing the application of Canada's two major railways for an increase in freight rates, Premier Stuart Garson said in the provincial legislature last night.

The premier said that at the beginning of the hearings into the application both Canadian Pacific and Canadian National Railways had taken the position that freight tonnage for 1947 would be less than in 1946.

Manitoba had submitted that total freight tonnage on the two railways would be 10.3 per cent greater than in 1946. Figures now available covering 1947 up to Nov. 1 Garson said showed a rise of 10.8 per cent.

5 Czech Officials In Argentina Quit

Govt. Loses Twice In House of Lords

LONDON, March 12.—(Reuters)—The government was defeated for a second time in the House of Lords yesterday by a vote of 25 to 16 on an opposition amendment to a local government bill. It had been defeated Wednesday for the first time since talks opened on possible reform of the House of Lords.

ACCUSED MURDERER SOUGHT PRIEST'S AID

NORTH VANCOUVER, B.C., March 12.—(CP)—Mechanic William Piercy in a "disturbed and upset" frame of mind went to see a friendly priest and asked for a place to sleep the night following the shotgun slaying of his north shore neighbor Bernard (Bunny) Smith.

This surprise development was introduced here yesterday by the crown as Magistrate F. J. Bayfield committed 39-year-old Piercy to stand trial for the murder of Smith last Feb. 23.

Father James Michael Barry of Vancouver's Holy Rosary Cathedral said Piercy came to see him the night following the shooting.

"He was disturbed and upset and wanted me to find him a place to sleep before he gave himself up to police," said Father Barry.

The priest testified Piercy complained that his wife and children were "getting on his nerves." Father Barry called New Westminster Detective Fred Saunders who made the arrest.

IT'S NEW YORK MODELS THIS TIME

Big Jim Folsom Off On New Kissing Spree

NEW YORK, March 12.—(AP)—Governor James (Big Jim) Folsom of Alabama stalwartly withstood a crowd of 2,500 on Fifth Avenue yesterday but succumbed to the charms of scores of beautiful girls who fought their way through the mob to his arms.

He kissed 'em all.

Traffic was blocked, police whistles shrilled and two photographers' cameras were smashed when the six-foot, eight-inch governor stepped from a limousine to be feted by the Barbizon School of Fashion Modelling as "the nation's No. 1 leap year bachelor."

Eighty beautiful blondes, brunettes and redheads rushed out of the school toward the governor as the crowd seethed around him. Arms outstretched, standing on tip-toe, came the models willing to be kissed. One after another he picked up the girls, lifted their faces and kissed them.

"What do you think of the New York ladies?" asked a reporter.

"Best in the world," shouted Big Jim. "Outside Alabama, that is."

City Worker Hit By Truck

Struck by box of a truck while working in subway at 109 street and 104 avenue Thursday afternoon, Frank Eigner, city engineer's department, was taken to General hospital.

Alleged driver of truck, Charles B. Jones, 9613 107 avenue, told police he was about to enter the subway from the north.

He said sun shining on windshield blinded him and he did not see the group of city men working.

Police said signs and flags were posted at both ends of the subway.

When removed to hospital Eigner was bleeding from the nose and mouth and complained of a hip injury. Following treatment for cuts and bruises he was released.

Two Deaths City Traffic

Two Edmontonians died in traffic accidents during February.

Fifteen dangerous driving charges were prosecuted while 13 speeders paid fines. A total of 134 traffic cases were dealt with by the court.

Jaywalkers received 37 "tickets" while 170 were handed to motorists.

Five drivers' licenses were suspended.

More Equipment Commission Aim

Clarence Richards, chairman of city recreation commission, praised work of members of Westmount Community Council for their successful efforts during last year to provide recreation facilities for residents of that district. He was addressing the second annual Community Open House Thursday night.

He said recreation programs arranged by the council would undoubtedly be of great benefit.

Mr. Richards also told the meeting the recreation commission is endeavoring to supply more equipment.

An entertainment program followed with John Warnick, Bud Beazley, Percy Canton, Mrs. F. Fife and Mrs. D. Robertson providing numbers.

Presidents of four organizations affiliated with the council spoke briefly.

Should warm weather continue, Patterson expects a strong demand for heavy workers about April 1.

Subsidy on Milk Is Held Unlikely

Premier's Letter to Legion Tells Danger of Precedent

Little hope of a requested three-cent provincial subsidy on milk is held by Premier Ernest Manning.

This was learned when correspondence between the Calgary Canadian Legion and the premier was tabled in legislature Thursday. Legion submission was made in letter form and gave an outline of a Calgary resolution suggesting need of a subsidy to compensate for three-cents-a-quart price rise authorized by Board of Public Utility Commissioners.

EXTREMELY EXPENSIVE

"Any subsidization scheme is extremely expensive and if done on a provincial scale would have to be paid for out of limited provincial revenues," the premier's letter said.

"Secondly, there would be the very immediate danger of establishing a precedent, which undoubtedly would be followed by pressure from all sides for extension of subsidy payments to include an almost unlimited number of commodities."

"The proposal that a single province enter into a policy of subsidizing milk is most serious one," letter concluded.

Mercenary Arabs Blamed by Rabbi

Feudal groups of mercenary Arabs are responsible for war in Palestine, said Rabbi Aron Horowitz, Canadian Hebrew Cultural Organization.

Born in Palestine, this mild mannered executive director arrived in Edmonton by air this morning from Montreal. He is here to inspect religious schools and summer camps. Hebrew camp "Tchiah" was established in Calgary in 1945. Objects of organization, the rabbi said, are preservation of Hebrew culture and development of cultural relations with nations of the world.

Basic Pension Increase Mooted

Five members supported a resolution to increase basic pension for disabled veterans to $100 Thursday in the legislature.

The resolution passed unanimously.

Introduced by L. D. Ward (Navy) the resolution was boosted by Gordon Taylor, Social Credit whip, seconder, and W. J. Williams (Vet.) Harper Prowse (Army) and F. C. Colborne (Air Force).

Govt. Oil Policies Scored by Roper

Government oil and resource policies were scored Thursday by E. E. Roper, CCF leader.

Resources produced revenue of $82,000,000 during 1947 of which the province received only $3,000,000, he said.

He charged the government with taking risks in Bitumont pilot plant although it would reap no benefit.

POLICE HAVE BUSY MONTH IN FEBRUARY

One hundred and eighty-three arrests were made by Edmonton city police during last month.

Fines resulted from 84 arrests, 50 went to jail while five suspended sentences were dealt out.

Fifteen women were booked on charges of intoxication of a total of 29 arrested.

Thirty-seven arrests were made by morality squads.

Coroner's department investigated seven deaths of which two were suicides, two accidental and three of natural causes.

Auto Course Discussion

Representatives of municipal, motor, civic and police organizations met to discuss incorporation of a driving-training course into Alberta school curriculums, Friday.

Meeting was called by department of education in legislative buildings and was attended by city government, police, teacher trustee and Alberta Motor Association representatives.

Discussions were held on suggested methods of incorporating such a course in Alberta's course of studies and granting of high school credits to successful pupils. Suggestions will be passed along to a meeting of Alberta curriculum committee to meet in May this year.

Test of plan may be carried out in Edmonton schools this fall, it was thought.

1,504 Veterans Have Land Leases

Agricultural leases have been issued to 1,504 veterans since the end of the war, Hon. N. E. Tanner, minister of lands and mines revealed Thursday.

He was answering questions placed on legislative order papers by Elmer E. Roper (CCF Edmonton) as to number of veterans settled on crown leases. Question had asked number of veterans settled on land, but in reply, Mr. Tanner said veterans have six months from date of acceptance to move onto land and have "winter protection."

For that reason he could not supply number actually settled.

Thirty applications from veterans for settlement in Wanham area have been approved, he said and 102 applications are now pending soil investigations when such again becomes possible.

An Expensive Nuisance

Parking meters in a city of Edmonton's size can be no more than an expensive nuisance because it takes as much manpower and costs as much in wages to check the operation of these devices as it does to patrol the streets for traffic infractions in the ordinary way.

Someone has to be on the job to see that motorists don't cheat on the machines. Someone must go around to collect the fees deposited in them. Someone must inspect them regularly to see that they are in working order. Any clockwork mechanism of the kind, operated by dozens of different hands during the day, is bound to be complex and delicate.

But the basic objection to parking meters is that the system charges for the use of the king's highway, public thoroughfares that traditionally under British practice are free to free men.

Government has the right to regulate the use of public thoroughfares. It has the right to impose penalties if they are used improperly. It has the right to impose taxation to improve them. But it has no right to charge for their use. Those things that are inherently free cannot be put out at rent.

There are definite instances where parking meters have become costly nuisances.

In Victoria, B.C., it is reported that the city's police force will have to be enlarged to check meters.

The North Cowichan municipality in B.C. has threatened to move the municipal offices from the town of Duncan because the meters there are irritating to those with whom the offices do business.

It is easily understood that the terms under which parking meters are offered to Edmonton could be tempting to a civic administration. No outlay of money is involved. The selling company takes 75 percent of the revenue from the meters until they are paid for. After that the city takes all.

The city, however, has done well to hesitate before closing the deal. Something for nothing can sometimes be highly expensive in the long run.

Another Job for Teachers

Chief Justice Wendell B. Farris of the British Columbia supreme court would like to see "crime does not pay" classes established in the public schools of Canada. That will be another nice little job for school teachers.

The B.C. jurist, advocating anti-crime courses in schools, is only following, of course, the trend of the times. For it is currently fashionable to put something goes wrong, to blame it on the early school training of children. Conversely, if human nature falls down in some particular, a loud cry goes up that the schools should do something about it.

A recent instance of that was seen in Alberta when, after a few young motor car drivers had become involved in accidents, a demand was made that courses in automobile operation should be given in the schools.

Just what is expected of school teachers anyway?

They already have to teach the elements of education, such as reading and writing and mathematics and the other basic knowledge which alone belongs on a school curriculum. They have to be qualified to give certain religious instruction. They are supposed to inculcate decent manners in children because if little Johnny fails to blow his nose properly, his teacher is sure to be blamed for it.

And now a distinguished jurist solemnly proposes that teachers should be responsible for keeping youngsters out of jail.

The average salary paid teachers in Alberta is $2,000 a year. The average school district salary is $1,800 a year. The highest average in cities is $2,840. The lowest salary is $1,200. The highest school teacher's salary paid in all Alberta is $5,000 and this is paid to a man with two degrees who is principal of Western Canada high school in Calgary and who manages a staff of 60.

It seems to be a tremendous lot of responsibility and work for the money.

Senate and Cabinet

The Canadian senate would be brought more closely into intimate touch with the government of Canada and the administration of Canadian affairs if the British practice were adopted of filling a few cabinet vacancies with members of the upper house.

Just now there is a row in Ottawa over the suggestion that Transport Minister Chevrier should appear in person in the senate to introduce an act to amend the Canada Shipping Act.

Certain senators take the position that the British North America Act does not permit the members of one house to take part in parliamentary debate with members of the other. So the threat is that if Mr. Chevrier appears in the senate, a "stranger" will be "seen" and Mr. Chevrier, under the rules, will be escorted to the door.

The senate is frequently ineffective because it is so remote from administration. Its usefulness would be increased many hundred percent if senators were named to the cabinet and the senate was able to deal with government measures with first hand information.

Museum Should Be Central

Provincial government plans to convert Government House, after the present arrangement with the Dominion expires July 1, 1949, into a provincial museum are unsatisfactory and unsound because a provincial museum should be centrally located and readily available to every child in the city.

The federal government holds no lease on Government House, but under an agreement covered by a privy council order the property was to be used by the department of pensions and national health for the duration of the war and six months afterwards. That agreement was extended to July 1, 1949.

At present the building is used satisfactorily as a veteran's hospital. It is ideally located for such a purpose. It is sufficiently remote from traffic to be quiet and far enough from industrial activities to provide good, clean air.

A more sensible use of the building would be to keep it as a veterans' hospital and, doubtless, if the terms were reasonable, the federal government would buy it for that purpose.

Most certainly it is much too far away from the centre of Edmonton's population to house the provincial archives and the $50,000 Ernest Brown collection of pioneer photographs.

These and other exhibits of a similar nature can be made of intense interest and value to Edmonton people and particularly to Edmonton children if they are displayed interestingly and in a place where citizens will fall into the habit of "dropping in."

Most archives and museum material lose 90 percent of their potential value because they are tucked away in some musty and inaccessible place.

To put Alberta's historical mementoes away out in Government House will only bury them.

Hitler Receives Solace in Hell

OTTAWA, March 8.—The ban against Japanese in British Columbia coastal areas will stay in effect for at least another year, it was learned today.—News Item.

The scene is Hell. As we look in, Adolph Hitler and Dr. Goebbels are sitting in a livid nook, toasting marshmallows over a bed of coals and discussing current events in The World. Hitler is speaking:

HITLER: . . . and, otherwise, things are going well?

GOEBBELS: Ja, Mein Fuhrer. The latest reports from The World are quite satisfactory. Just as you would have them.

HITLER: Anything new from America? Any new lynchings of Negroes in South Carolina?

GOEBBELS: (regretfully) Nein, Mein Fuhrer. (He consults the latest bulletins from his agents on Earth.) Ah, but here we have a reassuring report. Three Negroes sued a railway company for putting them in a Jim Crow coach.

HITLER: Non-Aryan swine! They were not successful, of course?

GOEBBELS: Of course not, Fuhrer. It was in the southern states.

HITLER: H'm-m-m. And the Jews? Anything special to report?

GOEBBELS: Nothing special. Just the usual world-wide reports of them being verboten in exclusive clubs, residential areas, fraternities and so on. Nothing unusual.

HITLER: Ah, well, at least my work is being carried on satisfactorily.

GOEBBELS: Splendidly, one might say.

HITLER: Well then, Herr Goebbels, if there is nothing further, I'm off to the live steam baths.

GOEBBELS: If I may detain you, Mein Fuhrer, I think you will be extremely interested in a report from one of our agents in Canada.

HITLER: Canada? Indeed? (Ruefully) That is the country which produced such fanatical fighters for er democracy. If you'll pardon the expression, Herr Goebbels?

GOEBBELS: (chuckling and kicking up his club foot with glee): I knew you'd be interested. There's good news from Canada, Mein Fuhrer!

The Report

HITLER: Come, now, Herr Goebbels, Quickly, Give me the details.

GOEBBELS: If I may read from the official report? (He reads) "The ban against Japanese in British Columbia coastal areas will stay in effect for at least another year."

HITLER: (arching a singed eye-brow): But I don't understand? Japanese in Canada? Our former allies?

GOEBBELS: (excitedly) Nein, nein, nein! You have missed the point, Mein Fuhrer. True, these people look like Japanese. But, in reality, they are legal Canadian citizens. Many of them do not even speak Japanese. Many of them are graduates from the University of British Columbia.

HITLER: (with a look of cunning) I begin to understand, dear Doctor.

GOEBBELS: British Columbia has made all the rest of Canada a kind of ghetto for the Japanese. The ramifications of this are astounding. As you well know, Mein Fuhrer.

HITLER: Indeed I do, doctor. Suprising how our former critics and enemies have picked up our techniques, eh?

GOEBBELS: Precisely my own view, Fuhrer. Indeed, the Japanese are just as good sport as the Jews. Absolutely no defence. Why, our agents assure me that many of the leading British Columbia businessmen are involved. Naturally, they don't want the Japanese to return as competition.

HITLER: Naturally.

GOEBBELS: We have some splendid men on our side. Of course, there are the usual rabble-rousers, the idealists.

HITLER: (holding his sides) Stop, Herr Doctor, you're killing me.

GOEBBELS: But, after all what are a few Japs?

HITLER: (controlling his laughter): You are a wonderful mimic, Doctor. A few Japs, a few Negroes, a few Jews, a few Scotsmen, a few Irish, a few Roman Catholics, a few French-Canadians. Himmel! We have given the world a philosophy! Sometimes I wish I were alive to enjoy it.

The Party

GOEBBELS: (puffing up) I have something further to report, Mein Fuhrer. I'm sure it will please you.

HITLER: Do go on.

GOEBBELS: Well, Fuhrer, this ban, this Canadian ghetto, was continued at the request of the British Columbia Liberal Party. Our agents are quite definite on that.

HITLER: Liberal! (roars with laughter). What a splendid joke!

GOEBBELS: Good men. Good men all. And highly respected in this province of British Columbia. Why, one of their leaders—now a senator—swore that he would leave public life if the Japs returned to that coastal strip.

HITLER: Capital! A man after my own heart. Truly a real senator!

GOEBBELS: A Scotsman, by the way. Name of Mackenzie.

HITLER: Hoot mon!

GOEBBELS: Ja, Mein Fuhrer, it is just as if you were there in person. A helpless minority used beautifully for political and economic purposes. A forthright stand against a race of different color or creed. Just as in our better days. And just think; a whole year ban on them!

HITLER: Ach, Doctor, how well you know humanity. Almost as well as I. But never fear, Herr Goebbels. We are far from dead so long as we have our friends up there.

GOEBBELS: Hoot mon, Mein Fuhrer.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Baby Buggies

Editor, Bulletin.—It would be a great help to mothers if the large stores provided accommodation for prams and children with a reliable baby-sitter who would take care of them for a small fee. Because of this lack of space and disinclination to inconvenience other shoppers I have not been in the large city stores for a year.

"Uselessness of Law"

Editor, Bulletin.—Under the above headline I cannot help but repudiate Mr. Prowse on his ignorance of business. One can well see that he has never been in business and if the opportunity should ever arise, it would be short lived. How in the world can a merchant operate on a loss of one half a cent (½c) on butter or any other product at the same cost, namely 66c.

The provincial government should be commended rather than reprimanded if such business practices were to continue. So Mr. Prowse do a little arithmetic before treading on ground on which angels fear to tread."

Or perhaps, the decimal point wandered in your figuring?

Snow Clearing

Editor, Bulletin.—I read with approval your editorial re keeping the sidewalks cleared for school children in The Bulletin but I don't think you go far enough.

Let me tell you of a situation that has existed on 95th street from 111th avenue south, for the last few years.

After a heavy snowfall the city puts graders to work clearing the snow off the road, and, where do you think they shove it? You're right, slap bang onto the sidewalk with the result that, while the roadway is clear the sidewalk is half covered with snow, leaving little more than a cow trail for pedestrian use. If you want to cross the street at an intersection it is necessary to climb a ridge of snow about a foot and a half high.

Is it any wonder that people use the road to walk on?

Another result of this grading stunt is seen in the spring when the snow melts. Due to the ridge along the edge of the sidewalk the water is unable to run off, so, to use the sidewalk the pedestrian is compelled to walk in a sea of water and filth, while the road is perfectly dry.

Other streets have had the snow removed by machine, why not 95th street, which is also a main thoroughfare?

Evolution

Editor, Bulletin—Many Christians have read with interest the statement of a university professor that he is both Christian and Evolutionist.

It is considered that a university education is not an end in itself but a training for the mind to use more fully its marvellous powers. Paul was a deeply educated man, but his writings in the New Testament were not what his intellect, his human understanding, would have produced. They were by revelation, which all must experience to become a true Christian.

Jesus Christ made many strong statements, all true or all false. If true the responsibility of believing them is squarely upon us. Neither He nor Moses uttered one word to be construed as supporting the theory of evolution, and everything to support the truth of creation.

In Groups

Editor, Bulletin.—Re the lower bracket pensioners, may I suggest a scheme to provide permanent homes for those still able to do light work?

Settle them in groups on small holdings adjacent to small towns. Let them build log houses and give them a cow, chickens, some young pigs, bees, and let them raise their own vegetables and cut their own wood. Let every man share in the work and have a man as supervisor who has had farm experience. Each group should include a shoemaker, tailor and barber.

The change in environment would materially benefit all concerned, and the exercise would be a fine form of occupational therapy. Here the men would not compete in the city's congested labor market and the plan would obviate duplication of services by individuals and at the same time provide an opportunity to clear out slums now crowded with these men.

Another Gandhi

Editor, Bulletin—After reading articles on Gandhi, and others on Krupp's, I think what the world needs just now is another Gandhi with his Christ-like teaching of peace, non-aggression and self-sacrifice; to rise in opposition to Krupp's and other war-mongers.

Smiles

The boys were being examined on the subject of personal hygiene.

A boy was asked, "What have you to do to keep your teeth sound and white?"

"Clean them," was the reply.

"When ought you to clean them?"

"Morning, noon, and night."

"What are they to be cleaned with?"

"A toothbrush."

"Very good. Have you a toothbrush?"

"No, sir."

"Has your father a toothbrush "

"No, sir."

"Has your mother a toothbrush?"

"No, sir."

"But how do you know about the use of toothbrushes."

"We sell them, sir."

Judge: "Do you wish to have a defending counsel?"

Accused: "No sir; but I should be obliged to you if you could get me two reliable witnesses."

The prosecuting solicitor shook his finger at the witness.

"Was or was not the defendant alone in the car?" he asked.

"No, he wasn't alone," said the witness; "there was a lady with him."

The solicitor looked pleased.

"As I thought," he said. "And I suppose he was looking at her instead of where he was going?"

"Not at all," said the witness. "It was his wife."

By coming to church we at least help to keep the place warm, and if we join heartily in singing as well as lift up our souls to God in praise and thanksgiving, we will be able to keep ourselves warm on the coldest day.

FROM TODAY'S NEWS

State Secretary Marshall's estimate of the world situation as "very, very serious" was couched in language which in effect advised the public to keep cool.

That's the best piece of advice we've had in a long time. It's natural that anxiety and anger should be produced by the steady stream of hostility which has been developing from the battle between Communism and Democracy.

We don't get a chance to cool off between events, and every few days there's a particularly aggravating development. The rape of Czechoslovakia was one of these. Of course such brutality arouses fears and wrath, and we get boiling mad when old friends like Jan Masaryk are driven to their deaths.

Still it's precisely moments like this when we should keep a grip on our passions if we want to iron out this situation without fighting another war. There are times when even the most peace-minded folk must resort to arms in self-defence. Such a time has not arrived and there is no certainty that it will arrive.

Now right here let it be said that anyone who didn't recognize the danger of war growing out of the present situation would be crazy. The tempers of both sides in this so-called "cold war" are on edge and it will require cool calculation to keep it from being turned into a hot war.

ON THE RECORD — By Dorothy Thompson

Howl of Oppression Sent Up By Communists at Ellis Island

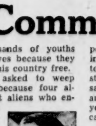
Tens of thousands of youths are in their graves because they fought to keep this country free.

Now we are asked to weep crocodile tears because four alleged Communist aliens who entered this country illegally to further the aim of destroying America are detained without bail on Ellis Island, pending deportation or sentencing.

They have gone on a hunger strike, and Communists are calling mass meetings of protest.

"At stake," they cry, "are due process of law, the right of habeas corpus, the right to release on bail pending trial, the presumption that all are innocent until proved guilty, the concept of equal justice for all."

Yes, these are exactly what are at stake. They are at stake, not only in this country, but all over the world. In the last few days, in Czechoslavakia, scores of journalists, college professors and political leaders have been thrown into jail, or out of jobs and sentenced to serve in work gangs or starve—all without one single safeguard of law. Among them are persons who suffered for years in German concentration camps for love of freedom.



THOMPSON

These men held on Ellis Island belong to the same party which everywhere destroys habeas corpus, due process, and equal justice. They would, if they had their way, abolish everything they now appeal to.

One of them is Gerhart Eisler, internationalist Communist agent and member of the praesidium of the Communist International. He entered this country on a false affidavit, to direct the American branch of the Communist party in Moscow's line. Now he is "warning" the American people that "no one in America is safe if (Attorney General) Clark is allowed to imprison individuals, deny them bail, because they oppose administration policy . . . Any crook or criminal gets bail."

What bunk!

Every crook or criminal does not get bail under American law. And no ordinary crook or criminal represents half the menace that these wretched tools of overthrow and destruction do. Their aims no longer are academic. Men like these have suppressed every right, every safeguard, every hope for millions.

"The denial of bail," says the Daily Worker protest, "is contrary to all precedent."

Contrary to all precedent of civilized states is the habit of a state, with whom friendly relations are thought to exist, to organize and use an international movement to enter this country, organize treason among its citizens, seduce them to become spies, penetrate the ranks of the innocent, exacerbate the discontents of racial groups, capture the leadership of unions, and conspire for the dissolution of the nation—and in doing so appeal for constitutional safeguards!

So contrary to all precedent is such activity that the constitutional state has wholly inadequate means for dealing with such a movement. It must wait until it catches one of the members in open breach of law to do anything against him at all!

Then the whole clique of hyenas turns loose in his defence.

In the treatment of these aliens the law has scrupulously been observed.

They are held under title 8, U.S. code, sections 1-5-6, as amended, which makes bail for such aliens entirely permissive—not mandatory—to the attorney general. Three of the men—Eisler, Williamson and Smith—have applied to the federal court, southern district of New York, for writs of habeas corpus, claiming they are aliens lawfully here and should be admitted to bail. The judges have denied the writ. Now the cases are being appealed to the circuit court.

The prisoners have all the benefits of appeal open to anyone, and Eisler, from Ellis Island, is still exercising "free speech" in the Daily Worker, while mass meetings to protest his "persecution" are being called everywhere.

These gentry, however, will not starve themselves to death. Communists do not make martyrs of themselves. They make trials.

THEIR RELIEF delayed 33 days because of winter storms, the three lighthouse keepers on Wolf Rock, off the Cornish coast, in England, stuck to their jobs. SNOW-CLEARING "RUINS" ROAD

TORONTO, March 12.—(CP)—Where many a driver has cussed and complained about snow-covered highways, W. J. Grummett, Ontario CCF leader, yesterday complained about snow plows which take too much snow from the roads.

Speaking in the Ontario Legislature, Grummett said highway No. 11 in Northern Ontario has been ruined because the plows cleaned snow from it completely, allowing frost to get into the pavement and destroy it.

Czech Diplomats Out Says Senator

OTTAWA, March 12.—(CP)—Senator Adrian K. Hugessen (L., Ontario) said yesterday that with the death of Jan Masaryk, Czech foreign minister, the exchange of diplomats between Canada and Czechoslovakia should be halted.

He urged that no Canadian minister be sent to Czechoslovakia and that Czechoslovakia's Communist government be told no replacement is wanted for Dr. Frantisek Nemec, Czech minister to Canada, who resigned after the recent Communist coup in his homeland.

Senator Hugessen's remarks came after government and opposition leaders in the senate paid tribute to Masaryk, son of the founder of Czechoslovakia, who died Tuesday in a 60-foot fall from the foreign ministry building in Prague.

The Progressive Conservative leader, Senator John T. Haig, contended that Masaryk's death, still unexplained, was not suicide. Masaryk had died "that the rest of the world might fight for freedom."

"We as western democracies had better remember it isn't very far from the borders of Czechoslovakia to the borders of Canada," he added.

Peg On Dividends Asked In Britain

Industrialists Seek Freezing At Levels of Last Year

By Michael O'Mara

LONDON, March 12. — (CP) — Britain's industrialists recommended that 1948 corporation dividends be frozen voluntarily at last year's levels to combat inflation.

The voluntary plan to curb profits and fix price ceilings at present levels was presented to Sir Stafford Cripps, chancellor of the exchequer.

It was drafted by the Federation of British Industrialists and endorsed by the Association of British Chambers of Commerce and the National Union of Manufacturers. These three organizations represent practically all of Britain's manufacturers.

The recommendations, which also urged reduction and stabilization of prices, were handed to Sir Stafford late yesterday. He said he "hoped to indicate his views in the next week."

Sir Stafford, boss of Britain's economic drive, warned last month that he would fix compulsory profit limits if industry did not produce its own plan to join in the government's anti-inflation program.

Industry spokesmen said at a press conference that the FBI recommendations represented "the over-all and considered views of industry" in Britain with at least 25,000 firms canvassed as to their broad opinion.

They emphasized, however, that there was no action which could be brought against any manufacturer who did not co-operate "in the spirit" of the recommendations.

Nor would "these measures, if taken alone, succeed in arresting inflation—wholesalers, trade unions and the government must take parallel action. But such action on our part . . . will be a positive contribution to that end."

Hong Kong Units Category Explained

OTTAWA, March 12.—(CP)—An army explanation of why the two Canadian Hong Kong battalions had been placed in category "C"—not recommended for operational considerations at present—in a September, 1941, training memorandum is given in the evidence of the 1942 Royal Commission inquiry.

Reproduction of this training memorandum, written before the units were selected for Hong Kong, was one of the highlights of the evidence and exhibits tabled in the Commons Wednesday.

Testifying before the commission, Lt.-Col. H. A. Sparling, then a staff officer in the directorate of military training who prepared the memorandum, said that the Royal Rifles of Canada from Quebec City and the Winnipeg Grenadiers were placed in category "C" because they had been away and just returned.

"We hoped that before they were sent off on another job, they would get the same type of refresher training that other units had had previously in the summer.

"Apart from that I do not think there is any question, certainly not from my own point of view, that they would be put in class 'A'."

Category "C" units were classified as those which, due either "to recent employment requiring a period of refresher training or to insufficient training, are not recommended for operational considerations at present."

U.S. Tax Cut

WASHINGTON, March 12.—(AP)—The senate finance committee voted 10 to 1 last night to cut United States income taxes $4,700,000,000. The house already has passed a $6,500,000,000 tax cut bill. The two measures now must be compromised.

TALE OF BLOOD AND DEATH

Famed Kensington Stone To Smithsonian Institute

By FRANK CAREY

WASHINGTON, March 12.—(AP)—Smithsonian archeologists, announcing acquisition of Minnesota's famed "Kensington Stone," said yesterday they believe it is authentic.

The carved stone contains a message ostensibly written by a party of Vikings in 1362, more than a century before Columbus's day.

It relates in Norse characters that a band of Swedish and Norwegian explorers had reached what is now Minnesota—and then ran into trouble, presumably Indians.

It is a tale of blood and death —and Smithsonian scientists see "a very high probability" that it was the despairing message to posterity of the doomed men.

Discovered in 1898 near Kensington, Minn., by Father Olof Ohman, the stone first was looked upon as a hoax.

But in the last 50 years, says the Smithsonian institution, "one bit of evidence after another has come to light indicating that the relic is genuine." Up until recently, the 200-pound stone was on display at the office of the Alexandria, Minn., Chamber of Commerce.

Declaring the stone now has been transferred to the national museum "for safe keeping" and public exhibit—on a loan basis—the Smithsonian announcement said:

"Even if it can not be indisputably authenticated, the confirming evidence that the stone constitutes a genuine record is so strong that this relic is regarded by Smithsonian archeologists as one of the most significant historical objects ever found in the New World."

The message, as translated with some reconstruction, is as follows: "(We are) eight Goths (Swedes) and 22 Norwegians on (an) exploration journal from Vineland through (or across) the west. We had camp by (a lake with) two skerries (one day's journey) forth from this stone. We were out and fished one day. After we came home (we) found 10 (of our) men red with blood and dead. AVM. (presumably 'Hail Mary.') save us from evil. (We) have 10 of our party by the sea to look after our ships 14 days' journey from this island. Year 1362."

$10 THEN $20 BID FOR $5,000 BROOCH

NEW YORK, March 12.—(AP)—A $5,000 brooch worn by a New York housewife for two years as a cheap piece of costume jewelry was claimed yesterday by Mrs. Serge Voranoff, wife of a Russian gland specialist.

Mrs. Voranoff sent word from the Principality of Monaco, South of France, that she would forward complete data on the pin she lost in April, 1943.

Mrs. Eleanor Hamilton, the housewife, found the brooch in the summer of 1945, several miles north of the spot where Mrs. Voranoff lost it.

She tossed it in a dresser at home, let the children play with it, then wore it a few times, and finally decided to have a broken clip repaired after the brooch had fallen off her dress.

The first jeweller to whom she took the pin offered her $10, then $20 for it. Becoming suspicious it was something more than costume jewelry, she took it to another shop where, to her consternation, it was valued at $5,000.

Cancer Patients Greatly Improved

SYDNEY, Australia, March 12.—(Reuters)—Two Canadian women who flew to Australia from Vancouver a fortnight ago for treatment by 78-year-old John Braund, whose claims to discovery of a cancer cure are being investigated by the New South Wales government, said yesterday they were "tremendously improved."

Mrs. Ruth McIntyre, 33, said: "Though the treatment is only in the preliminary stages, I am already eating and sleeping better than for a long time."

Mrs. Anna Northam, 36, said her appetite was greatly improved and added: "Anything is better than just staying at home waiting to die."

Braund said both women were suffering from "dangerous advanced" cancers.

Broker Registration Fees Are Reduced By Ontario Act

TORONTO, March 12.—(CP)—Reduction in registration fees for brokers, investment dealers and broker-dealers are provided in the Securities Act of 1945, proclaimed Wednesday, it was announced yesterday by the Ontario Securities Commission.

Under the act registration fees for brokers, investment dealers and broker-dealers in Ottawa, Toronto, Windsor or London are reduced from $200 to $150.

For those in other cities with population of 25,000 or more the fee is reduced from $200 to $100 and in centres with less than 25,000 the fee becomes $50 instead of $200.

For a company registration as a security issuer is reduced from $200 to $150.

Palestine Force Of 50,000 Urged

Arabs, Jews Declared Eager To Begin Mass Slaughter

By Eliav Simon

JERUSALEM, March 12.—(BUP)—British North Palestine Commander Maj. Gen. H. C. Stockwell today called upon the United Nations to create a powerful Palestine police force of at least 50,000 well-trained troops as Arabs and Jews fought two large-scale battles and several skirmishes in the Holy Land.

Stockwell described Arab and Jewish armed forces as "eager" for the British to evacuate, "so they can slaughter each other."

"The world has almost no conception how much blood will be shed here when we are gone," he said. "It is shocking for me to contemplate it.

NEED STRONG FORCE

"The only way this bloodshed can be avoided is to have an armed police force here big enough to disarm both Jews and Arabs and with authority to do so."

He said it would take 50,000 well trained and equipped men at least six months to bring Arab and Jewish extremist elements under control.

Stockwell said the British already have evacuated 1,800 troops, and more were leaving today. It would be "immoral and un-Christian," he said, for the UN to leave Palestine without an adequate police force after the British withdraw.

WINNIPEG, March 12.—(CP)—Chief Justice E. A. McPherson of the Manitoba court of appeal yesterday granted a reprieve to April 16 to Lawrence Deacon, sentenced to hang Monday for the bolt-murder of taxi driver Johann Johnson.

Realtors Hear Oil Expert

Necessity for employment of large companies with abundant capital to ensure successful development of Alberta's oil resources was stressed Thursday by Frank Alexander.

Mr. Alexander recently arrived in Edmonton as representative of Cleaver-Brooks, Milwaukee, manufacturers of heavy industrial equipment. He was addressing monthly meeting of Edmonton Real Estate association on oil field development of the Middle East, where he spent eight years as chief engineer of the Iraq Petroleum Company Limited.

It was pointed out that in the period between the end of First World War and 1928 £100,000,000 were spent on explorations that led to discovery of the Mosul Oil Fields in Iraq. In addition to this initial expense capital was required to develop the field and transport oil to market, which in this case was the eastern Mediterranean coast.

Czech Reds Suppress "Terror Reign" Charge

By George Pipal

PRAGUE, March 12.—(BUP)—Premier Klement Gottwald's Communist government disclosed today that it had suppressed the U.S. information bulletin containing Secretary of State George C. Marshall's statement that a "reign of terror" exists in Prague.

Post office authorities informed the U.S. embassy that the bulletin, issued last Wednesday, had been confiscated from the mails.

This development coincided with a claim in the Communist party newspaper Rude Pravo that there was no terror in Prague and that "not a hair of anyone's head has been harmed."

A police communique meanwhile reported that Josef Herod, former regional secretary of the National Socialist party in Moravia, had committed suicide in prison yesterday. Herod was held on charges of participating in an "espionage network."

The spy network, according to the police announcement, was established by Vladimir Krajina, former general secretary of the National Socialists, and Ota Horsert, a member of Parliament.

PRAGUE, March 12.—(AP)—A line of weeping mourners nearly two miles long filed through Czernin Palace today to place flowers on the bier of Foreign Minister Jan Masaryk.

Masaryk's body lay in state from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m., but the throng was so vast the doors of the palace opened an hour early to permit school children to pass through.

VET MLA SUGGESTS CANADA SWEEPSTAKE

He didn't want to be bothered by police, and he wouldn't disclose where he got it, but W. J. Williams (Vet-Edmonton) held an Irish Sweepstakes ticket before legislature Thursday afternoon.

Millions of dollars leave the North American continent for the Irish sweeps, he said, but the money went to support Irish hospitals. He thought federal government could support a similar scheme in Canada and be thus enabled to pay most of Canada's hospital and public welfare charges.

Prices Rollback Asked To End-of-War Levels

OTTAWA, March 12.—(CP)—The Canadian and Catholic Confederation of Labor today urged reduction of prices to end-of-the-war levels and appointment of a Royal Commission to study price boosts.

The Confederation said in a memorandum presented to the cabinet that the parliamentary prices committee "cannot give satisfactory results unless measures are taken to put a check on rising prices, but also to unduly-increased prices."

Price recommendations:

1. Prices of basic necessities should be reduced to end-of-the-war levels, the prices board to grant "justified" increases.

2 Royal commission study of boosts "since the end of the war in manufacturing industry and in retail and wholesale stores."

3. A permanent "arbitration tribunal," with labor representation. No price boost, "as long as demand shall exceed supply," could become effective before submission of reasons to this body.

4. An "equity tribunal" to study rent cases, with power to grant adjustments.

The confederation, which claims to represent 75,000 workers, suggested an "accurate cost-of-living index" based on a "typical family budget of five persons." To eliminate workers' doubts about minimum salary needs and cost-of-living fluctuations.

PSYCHOLOGIST PUTS THE OK ON NECKING

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., March 12.—(AP)—There is nothing "as wholesome as good clean necking," in the opinion of a Springfield psychologist.

Dr. Dorothy T. Spoerl, a member of the psychology department of American International College, advised students, however, to "be relatively careful where and when you do it.

"You don't have to travel 100 miles into the woods where you'll be alone with temptation," she added.

Retail Price-Setting Investigation Sought

OTTAWA, March 12. — (CP) — Investigation into the practice of manufacturers and wholesalers setting retail prices was asked of the Commons price committee today by the Canadian Association of Consumers.

In a brief presented to the committee, the association asked that this practice of "re-sale price maintenance" be probed to determine its contribution towards the prices of consumer goods.

"As consumers," said the brief, "we would like to know whether competition in our economy is working free. In our free competitive economy, is it ever right for the manufacturer of wholesales to tell the retailer what he should charge his public? What part does this play in the prices of consumer goods."

SUGGEST MORE ITEMS

Recently, the committee has been looking into re-sale price maintenance in connection with bread, and the association suggested specifically it also should deal with such items as soap flakes, matches, hardware items and electrical appliances.

Association urged the committee to extend its inquiry—which already has touched on bread, fruits and vegetables— into such cost-of-living items as flour, milk, butter, clothing, household necessities and furniture.

In the case of most of these, the committee already had indicated a planned investigation.

PHILANDERER TOO CARELESS, GETS CAUGHT

LOS ANGELES, March 12.—(AP)—A 66-year-old grandmother won a divorce today after accusing her husband of going out with another woman, grandmother of seven.

Mrs. Katherine Devin, 66, said she had been a family friend for 20 years. She said she once listened in on a conversation between her husband, Walter Devin, 51, and Alma, and heard him say:

"She hasn't caught on yet."

STOCKHOLM, March 12. — (Reuters)—RCAF Flyers, Canada's Olympic hockey champions, yesterday defeated the Swedish Club team Soertalje 3-2.

Year to Prove Lesson Learned

Mr. Justice C. J. Ford, in supreme court Friday, decided to give Irvin T. Teague, Keephills district lineman, an opportunity to prove confidence of a city detective is not misplaced.

The jurist placed 22-year-old Teague on suspended sentence for one year taking the accused's father and brother as bondsmen for his good behavior.

Teague pleaded guilty to a fourth charge Friday, that of theft of a $20 saddle, property of Donald Cole, Keephills farmer. He had previously entered guilty pleas to two forgery charges, and one of possession of stolen travellers cheque.

At this hearing Det. Frank Kinzett, who arrested the accused said there were "great possibilities" Teague had learned his lesson.

March Blizzard Hits Midwest U.S.

KANSAS CITY, March 12.—(AP)—The United States midwest's worst March blizzard swept eastward last night into Ohio and Pennsylvania.

It hit Cleveland in full force. Cars were stalled by the hundreds there in snow nearly seven inches deep.

In other parts of Ohio highways were choked by drifts. The East Ohio Gas Co., stopped service to 600 industrial users.

A freak snow storm struck Chicago, leaving a blanket a foot deep in some parts of the South Side lake front.

Home Entered

Vernon Klasson, 11249 70 street told police his home was entered Thursday night and $18.50 in silver taken.

Confederation Ballot Granted in Fairness

OTTAWA, March 12.—(CP)—Decision of the British government to include the question of union with Canada on a forthcoming Newfoundland referendum ballot was made because "it would not be right that the people of Newfoundland should be deprived of an opportunity of considering the issue," it was learned today.

A letter from the Commonwealth Office in London reviewed the history of the government of Newfoundland and the vote taken by the national convention of the colony last Nov. 8 on confederation with Canada should only be arranged after direct negotiations between a local responsible government and the Canadian government," the letter said.

"The terms offered by the Canadian government represent, however, the result of long discussion with a body of Newfoundlanders who were elected to the convention, and the issues involved appear to have been sufficiently clarified to enable the people of Newfoundland to express an opinion as to whether confederation with Canada would commend itself to them."

Bob Friedman isn't off to a fancy costume ball. He's modeling what Chicago's Museum of Science and Industry says will be an everyday business suit in the 21st Century.

Seven Charges, One Year Jail

A one year prison term was handed to a youthful offender today when he pleaded guilty to seven charges.

Stanley Bilinski, 24, confessed to three charges of forgery, two of obtaining money by false pretences and two of uttering forged documents.

Bilinski obtained $330 in 1946 by using a bank book, belonging to Fred T. Englie, to cash cheques.

He drew one year sentence on each forgery count and six months on each of obtaining money by false pretences.

Sentences will run concurrently.

Bilinski had recently been returned from U.S. where he had served a prison term.

Powerful Ports Fail to Ruffle Fighting Forts

PORT ARTHUR, March 12 — (CP)—Somebody should tell those Fort William Columbus Club boys that Port Arthur Bruins are hot favorites to take the Memorial Cup. It seems the clubbers aren't the least bit fazed by all the plaudits heaped upon the Bruins.

True enough, the Bruins lead their best-of-seven Lakehead Junior hockey final with the clubbers 3-0 with one game tied. But every game has been such a struggle that even the Bruins aren't ready yet to count the clubbers down and out. The Bruins hold the opinion that there won't be many teams tougher than the clubbers en route to the Canadian Junior crown.

"The clubbers always give us trouble," said Bruins' coach Eddie Lauzon when the present series started. Lauzon wasn't a bit off the mark. The first game ended in a 7-7 overtime tie. Bruins took the second 9-7, again in overtime. They were awarded the third with the score tied 5-5 in the third period when Coach Leo Barbini of the clubbers pulled his men off the ice in protest against the officiating.

Bruins took their only clear-cut victory in the series Wednesday night when they won 8-5.

SPORTS BULLETIN

STUDENTS TO HEAR PRESIDENT OF WCHL

D. P. McDonald, president of the Western Canada Hockey league, will be guest speaker for the University of Alberta's annual Color Night celebration, scheduled for next Tuesday in the Macdonald hotel.

Mr. McDonald is a U. of A. graduate. In his undergraduate days he was an outstanding netminder on Varsity hockey teams.

Included in the awards to be given out on Color Night will be the Wilson trophy, emblematic of outstanding athletic achievement among male students. University Athletic Board will announce the winner Friday.

Boston's Babando Pleads Innocent

BOSTON, March 12.—(AP)—Pete Babando, Boston Bruins forward, pleaded innocent yesterday to a charge of assault and battery.

Judge Jennie L. Barron released him on his own recognizance until March 31.

Babanda was charged with assaulting a hockey fan and the latter's small son when leaving the ice following a Bruins-Chicago National Hockey League game Jan 31 in Boston Garden.

Reach Semi-finals In B.C. Senior B

VERNON, B.C., March 12.—(CP)—The second half of the British Columbia senior "B" hockey semi-final playoffs open here tonight when Kimberley tangles with Vernon in a best-of-five series. The winner will meet New Westminster for the provincial title.

There is no intermediate hockey in British Columbia this year. It called senior "B." Whether the winner will meet prairie contenders for the Western Canada intermediate title, dropping down a grade, is not known.

On the junior front Trail Junior Smoke Eaters appear to have the B.C. title. They defeated Vernon in two straight games and no other claimants have gone forward.

British Columbia's contender for the Allan Cup, symbol of Dominion senior "A" hockey supremacy, will be selected next week. The two B.C. finalists, Kimberley Dynamiters and Trail Smoke Eaters, both have previously captured the trophy.

On the basis of Western International Hockey League competition, the league-leading Dynamiters are favorites to edge the Smokies.

Penalty to Myles Turns Hockey Tide

Clovechok's Equalizer Gives Flyers New Life

As long as he plays hockey and probably for a time thereafter colorful verbose Vic Myles will remember his cheap penalty which proved the turning point in last night's puck-fest at the Arena . . . Teammate Harvey Barnes already was doing time for up-ending Andy Clovechok in roughneck fashion . . . Then Myles parked his big frame on the puck and got the thumb from Vic Lindquist.

• • •

While Barnes and Myles were off, Clovechok worked through for his third goal to make it a 3-3 sawoff on the scoreboard . . . The tally proved just the shot in the arm which a staggering Flyer squad needed . . . The locals quickly took charge to do most of the whip-cracking from there on.

• • •

The big fellow refused to be consoled when it was over and Caps were licking their wounds in their dressings quarters . . . "I never saw the beat of it," Myles exploded. "They tripped us . . . they hooked . . . they held us and got away with it. I happen to sit down on the puck and off I go. But then this always has been an 'Alberta league' as far as the referees are concerned."

• • •

There's no denying that the penalty Caps paid for the Myles' infraction was out of all proportion to the offence . . . They might have got away with it except they were already shorthanded . . . Playing four against six they were almost bound to get the treatment, particularly in view of the fact that Flyers were desperate for a goal.

• • •

Whether or not Caps might have held on to win had Myles not been waved away will never be known . . . Over the last 30 minutes the visitors were out-skated by a wide margin . . . Rugged operators like Gus Kyle, brother Bill Kyle, Barnes and Myles were all in when the klaxon finally blared . . . Johnny Solick talked for a lot of the Caps when he admitted at the finish, "they had it over us."

• • •

For the second time in his career Morey Rimstad packed home an award for topping a league in point manufacturing . . . It's close to 10 years since he paced the PCHL for a season. He was a member of Guy Patrick's Vancouver Lions in 'them that days' . . . Accompanying the trophy were the warm wishes of the donor, Dr. W. Turnbull, Saskatoon . . . The Hub City medico expressed them in a chatty note to Rimstad.

• • •

The Arena was loaded for this one . . . Doug Anderson was all but mobbed as dozens of youthful admirers chased him for an autograph . . . Bill Maher showed more early foot than he has for several weeks . . . "Just a lucky stab," Doug Lane laughed off his relay to Clovechok resulting in the second Flyer goal . . . He's looking better every time out.

• • •

Myles took quite a ride from a leather-lunged fan parked in section J . . . "Hi ya, Fat Boy," was his favorite chant . . . Then he'd vary it with, "What'ya you get in shape, Fat Boy?" . . . If the former New York Ranger heard he didn't let it interfere with the job at hand.

• • •

At one stage of the first period 'Pug' Young looked like a guy about to blow his top . . . He got a stick in the face and from the press box it appeared that Harvey Barnes was the culprit . . . However the ebullient Flyer rearguard first took a run at Jimmy Fairburn and later tried to hang one on Myles . . . Then he cooled off and was as pink temperature by the end of the frame.

• • •

Hardly a cheer greeted Fisher's second goal the one that made it 2-2 just before the first 20 minutes was history . . . Young broke his stick while the one-time NHL star was working into position and he tossed aside the pieces with a great show of disgust after the light flashed on . . . For his part Ol' Joe just picked his way along until it was time to let fly.

• • •

"That's a little better," Louis Holmes, a press box visitor, chuckled as Flyers again swept ahead in the middle stanza . . . The veteran forward was just having a night off—"No," he insisted, "there's nothing wrong with me." . . . Frank Currie was still pacing up and down 20 minutes after it was all over . . . "You're nearly there now," someone shouted, meaning that only the winner of the Calgary-Lethbridge series stands between Flyers and their first league crown . . . Currie just grinned, went right on doing his roadwork.

• • •

"Couldn't be better," Charlie Wilson, Exhibition Association Manager, chortled as he made the rounds of the dressing room . . . It was more than just a hockey triumph in his books, seeing as how he's the gent who must keep an eye on finances . . . Most Flyer gates probably run close to $5,000 . . . That ain't hay . . . Freddy Smiton and Elmer Kreller handled the important job of killing off penalties.

You have to hand it to the Caps . . . Win, lose or draw they put on a real show . . . Fisher played it rough and tough for a time in the final frame, doubtlessly trying to rally his charges for a last supreme effort . . . Generally he keeps his stick well down . . . And so to the finals . . . Let's have at it!

Hall Moves Up To Heximer In Point Race

Grant Hall, slim winger of Lethbridge Maple Leafs' "punch line," chalked up four assists in his last outing to move into a tie with linemate Roy Heximer for point-sniping honors in the WCHL playoffs, according to unofficial statistics compiled today.

Hall has helped the other guy 10 times, while Heximer has clicked for seven goals (tops in the league) and three assists. Close on the trail of the leaders comes Leafs' Steve Latoski, who has nine points, five markers and four assists.

Two Edmonton Flyers—"Handy" Andy Clovechok and Doug Anderson, who copped the rookie award—matched some of the Leaf thunder against Regina last night to move into fourth and fifth spots respectively. Clovechok garnered four goals to increase his point total to eight, while Anderson is one back with three tallies and four helpers.

Cromdale Takes North Side Title

Cromdale captured Community Midget Hockey League (North side) championship Thursday night by shutting out Highlands 3-0 in second game of a two-game total-goal series. Highlands won first tilt 2-1. Cromdale now meets Bonnie Doon for city-wide honors.

Goal scorers for the winners were Bill Worton, Orest Mendryk and Frank Pelleck. Gordon Mitchell was in goal for Cromdale, holding Highlands scoreless.

Suspended Pro Players Refuse Defence Aid

NEW YORK, March 12.—(AP)—Clarence Campbell, president of the National Hockey League, said yesterday that Billy Taylor of New York Rangers and Don Gallinger of Boston Bruins had refused all aid in defending themselves before they were suspended in the record betting scandal.

Taylor was suspended for life, Gallinger indefinitely pending completion of Campbell's investigation.

"The players involved were told in detail the things they were alleged to have done," Campbell told reporters at a weekly hockey writers luncheon. "I offered them every aid in defending themselves but they declined to take any."

Bombers Losing Stars But Will Field Team

WINNIPEG, March 12.—(CP)—Arthur Uniac Chipman, debonair president of Winnipeg's football Blue Bombers, took note last night of rumored player moves—more than seasonally brisk—and remarked that Bombers still will field a club this season even if last year's water boys have to be transformed into inside wings.

With rumor piled on rumor, there has been mounting chaos when it seemed that anywhere up to eight or nine of the men who helped carry Bomber colors to the national final last season would be in new livery for the 1948 season. To date, though, there has been word of only one definite departure.

HOOD CALGARY-BOUND

Backfielder Harry Hood, reared to football stardom on local gridirons, is disclosed to have accepted an offer of a position in Calgary. He intends to line up with the Stampeders this fall. Les Lear, the new Stamps' coach, also is known to be after a number of others from the 1946-47 Bombers.

"It's still a bit too early for us to be doing much talking or even to know definitely ourselves about the players we'll be having with us this fall," said Chipman. With a laugh, he added: sometimes . . . from all the rumors I hear . . . I wonder if we'll have anybody on hand when the football season comes around."

Bombers' Don Hiney, the Smiths —Don and Bob, Normie Geller and Johnny Westrum are reported to have been approached by Lear.

For tricky Hood, the move to Calgary is one that will take him back to his high school football tutor. Hood and Don Smith both played under Lear at Winnipeg's Kelvin high school five years or so ago and it may be that Don, too, will be Calgary-bound.

SANDBERG'S PLANS

There's always one question in football circles from Montreal to Calgary that will command the attention of all ears. "What are Bob Sandberg's plans for this season?"

Everyone would like an answer to that one. Even rugged Robert may be in the same boat as the answer seekers.

Westrum is not entirely satisfied with jobs offered him by the Bomber front office. The hard hitting end has also been mentioned in dispatches as looking to other football fields west of here.

Johnny Reagan, the import who dazzled Winnipeg spectators at the first of last season only to be sidelined later by injury, is still testing his trick knee on United States basketball floors. Bomber officials said if his knee stood up in the cage game he would be back.

Big Hockey "Scandal" Proves Fizzle; Game's Reputation Emerges Spotless

By Jack Gray

TORONTO, March 12.—(CP)—The National Hockey League betting embroglio could scarcely be said to have stunned the Canadian sports public in view of the lengthy investigations before the expulsion from the league of Billy Taylor of New York Rangers and the indefinite suspension of Don Gallinger of Boston Bruins.

But the fact that the betting charges had anything behind them at all was a nasty blow. Early sports writers' comment after President Clarence Campbell's statement paid a tribute to the NHL executive for the thorough way in which the probe was carried out.

However, Jim (Toronto Globe and Mail) Coleman warned his readers against any misconception of what happened.

"... According to the evidence made public by Campbell . . . Taylor wagered on a game in which his own team wasn't participating . . . It's much as if a member of the New York Yankees made a bet on a game between the Boston Red Sox and the Philadelphia Athletics," said Jim.

"We aren't apologizing for Taylor, but his only sin was that he was fool enough to wager on a hockey game when the National Hockey League had warned every player that betting would lead to expulsion from the game . . . as far as we know, a notice to that effect is posted in the dressing-room of every team in the league.

"The important thing is that professional hockey has emerged from the case with its reputation untarnished. It has been shown that no player or players made any attempt to 'throw' a game.

Bobby (Toronto Evening Telegram) Hewitson declared: "Hockey will be stronger than ever because of what has been revealed . . . This hasn't been a 'sport scandal' as some like to call it. There has been no evidence of fixed games. There has been no evidence the gamblers have tried to approach players to do things they should not do towards the losing of a game."

To which Tommy (Globe and Mail) Munns said Amen.

"More worthy of public confidence than ever is hockey in general and the National League in particular," said Tommy.

Saints Square Playoff Series With Precision

All square and one to go.

That's the position in which Precision machine and Lattes Day Saints find themselves after two hectic battles in the Northern Alberta intermediate basketball playoff final.

Last night the Saints prevented elimination by pinning a 46-33 defeat in the Machinists in a whirlwind fixture at the RCAF drill hall.

Mark Lewis, always well up in the score sheet, excelled himself with a grand total of 20 points to lead the Saints' offensive. Grant Wheeler, another accurate leather-toaser, wound up in second place with a creditable 12 points.

None of the Machinists got particularly "hot" and Steve Mendryk led the parade with nine points. He was closely followed by Don Blue, who garnered eight.

The Precision crew forged into a 16-10 lead in the first quarter, but the Saints came back strong in the second to outscore their rivals 13-0. The winners held a 23-17 edge in the closing half.

Doug Anderson's Dad Would Have Enjoyed Son's Rookie Success

Doug Anderson's mother introduced one note of regret when informed Thursday afternoon that her younger son had won the rookie-of-the-year award among WCHL first year men.

"I only wish," she observed, "that his father was still alive to share in our pleasure."

James Anderson, Sr., who passed on to his reward some six years ago, was well known to local sportsmen. He was a crack soccer player, here and in Scotland before coming to Canada close to 25 years ago. As well his prowess on the bowling green came to be well recognized once he had put behind the more strenuous activities.

"He never lost his interest in sports," Mrs. Anderson went on, "particularly as first Jimmy, Jr., and then Doug took up such games as soccer, baseball and hockey."

Doug's older brother was, of course, a fine hockey player in his own right. Lack of poundage, more than anything, caused professional scouts to pass him by. But as a member of such senior teams as Dominions and Superiors he established himself as a keen, effective forward.

There were two or three seasons when the 'Lefty' Grove-'Shorts' Purcell-Jimmy Anderson line rated close to the top in amateur ranks.

Jimmy Anderson still is recognized as one of the best soccer players in the west. Last season he went at a good clip for Manager Martin Collingwood's North Side Legion squad, provincial titlists.

Wrong-Way Corrigans

Flyers came perilously close to losing their prize rookie not long after the schedule went on its way. Frank Currie hadn't seen fit to sign Doug Anderson to a playing form and the youngster, keen to establish whether or not he belonged in senior company, contacted officials of the Saskatoon Quakers.

About time Jame Flyers were carrying on like a bunch of Wrong-Way Corrigans. They hit rock bottom finally by dropping a 9-4 decision to Regina Caps and the town blew wide open.

"Get a hockey team," the fans demanded. A special meeting was held by the committee entrusted with the task of looking after puck affairs for the Exhibition association. What went on at that secret session isn't known for certain. The talk was straight from the shoulder, there's no doubt. One of Coach Currie's first moves following the extraordinary session was to rearrange his lines.

This brought the untried but ambitious Anderson into the picture. Pen and ink were quickly placed before him and his name added to the roster.

From the first the WCHL became the youngster's oyster. His initial time out he picked up a pair of assists. Then—flanked by Handy Andy Clovechok and 'Bing' Merluk, two of the real cuties of the league—the goals began to roll out of his war-club.

Anderson was on his way. Some of his enthusiasm made itself felt all down the line. In a great January drive Flyers worked their way to the top of the heap.

And Frank Currie must have blessed the day he put his starry rookie on the line.

Headed for Montreal

Anderson is due to report to Montreal Canadiens next fall. He is on record to the effect that he 'wants to make good in pro hockey.'

When Canadiens' general manager Frank Selke meets him for the first time he'll find himself shaking hands with a freckle-faced boy-kid who packs 153 pounds on a 5'7" frame. There's some reason to believe Selke will immediately order him to a milk farm in the hope that he'll pick up some poundage.

Lack of heft may seriously interfere with Anderson's yen to make the grade, particularly in the N.H.L., where skill long since gave way in the face of determined assaults by a clutch and grab gentry.

Joe Fisher, Regina coach, put the finger on Anderson the other night. "Why?" he wanted to know. "don't kids with so much competitive instinct come in larger sizes? Anderson, I'll swear, has eyes in the back of his head. He always knows where everyone is on the ice and what they're doing."

Anyway it was all according to the evidence that they called Anderson to the centre spot at the Arena last night and he heard honeyed words from Mayor Ainlay before being officially sworn in rookie-of-the-year. It was interesting, too, that Morey Rimstad should he cut in on a presentation all his own because he topped the point getters. Neither Rimstad nor Anderson opened the season with the Flyers.

Anderson's teammates (long ago they nicknamed him 'Rookie') crowded round to offer congratulations. Later Coach Currie thumped him on the back, expressed his good wishes.

Only one thought remains and it hearkens back to the circumstances surrounding Anderson's original signing by a Flyer team that was ready to try anything to shake a slump.

Undoubtedly the successor to Cy Thomas as the WCHL's rookie-of-the-year came relatively cheap in the beginning. For which reason it's to be hoped that the Exhibition Association long since tore up the original Anderson agreement and replaced it with one calling for more of that stuff for which even a rookie can find plenty of use.

Joe McCarthy, new Boston Red Sox manager looks on as his charges work out in spring training. He's decked out in his new togs.

15 Amateur Boxers Crowned Champs Of North Alberta

One Kayo, Three TKO's Mark Final Night of Eliminations

Fifteen northern Alberta boxing champions are digging their shoes in the resin and sharpening up those lefts and rights in preparation for the next big ring show at the end of the month.

The big do is the provincial finals, and a number of last night's battlers at HMCS Nonsuch are conceded a good chance to add to their laurels. The reward for the winners of that beak-busting affair is a trip to Vancouver for the Western finals. Survivors will then journey to Montreal for the Canadian championships. The Olympic trials are another incentive for the new champions.

HIGH STANDARD

As was more-or-less expected, the matches last night were of a higher standard than on the previous night's card. There were three technical knockouts and one clean-cut kayo.

Frank Leadley of the University of Alberta was the lad with the lethal blow and Joe Sirdar was the victim. Leadley was the sharper puncher and dumped Joe in his own corner with a short right. Bill Spring, who stopped Merton Whitesall opening night, opened Thursday by making William Alexandruk's second toss in the towel.

Oscar Kruger, who packs plenty of power in both fists, halted James Hand in the first round via the TKO route. Oscar was giving James a particularly hard time when the referee called it quits.

Nestor Ludwig floored Maurice Escallier with a terrific blow in the dying seconds of the second round. Maurice's seconds dragged him to his chair and he was saved by the bell. However, when the gong for the third sounded, they just shook their heads.

Pete Nuthall and C. E. French engaged in gory fray. Each wound up with a cut over an eye, with Pete being awarded the decision.

Defeat of Gordon Riddell by Laurie MacLean, was perhaps the closest thing to a surprise. The Alberta University mitt-slinger, who is the Western inter-collegiate champion, held a wide advantage in reach over Riddell and utilized an effective straight left.

Following are the results:

135-pound novice semi-final—Bill Spring, YMCA, defeated W. Alexandruk, Sea Cadets, TKO in second; Don McAdie, Sea Cadets, decisioned Arthur Lee, Alberta U.

Final—Spring decisioned McAdie.

Junior 100-pound final—Oscar Kruger, EBC, defeated James Hand, Sea Cadets, TKO in first.

126-pound novice final—Gordon McKenna decisioned Jim Steele, SS Legion.

126-pound open semi-final—Nestor Ludwig, YMCA, decisioned Les Bunch, Red Deer.

Final—Ludwig defeated Maurice Escallier, EBC, TKO end of second.

70-pound final—Neil Neville, EBC, decisioned Bollins Peck.

147-pound novice final—Frank Leadley defeated Joe Sirdar, RBC, kayo in second.

110-pound semi-final—Reg Knight, Sea Cadets, won split decision over Morton Campbell, Sea Cadets.

Final—Reg Knight decisioned John Stranad, (unattached).

147-pound open final—Laurie McLean, Alberta U., decisioned Gordon Riddell, RBC.

175-pound final—Pete Nuthall, RBC, decisioned C. E. French, Alberta U.

90-pound final—Buddy McDonald, EBC, decisioned Ken St. Peter, EBC.

The Northern Alberta amateur boxing champions follow:

70-pound Junior—Neil Neville, EBC.

90-pound Junior—Buddy McDonald, EBC.

90-pound class—Jimmy Crossin, Sea Cadets.

100-pound class—Oscar Kruger, EBC.

110-pound class—Reg Knight, Sea Cadets.

114-pound class—Harold Dahms, Alberta U.

118-pound open—Bob Bacon, Sea Cadets.

126-pound novice—Gordon McKenna, Sea Cadets.

126-pound open — Nester Ludwig, YMCA.

135-pound novice — Bill Spring YMCA.

145-pound open—Laurie McLean, Alberta U.

147-pound novice—Frank Leadley, Alberta U.

Cleveland's Harold Urich, 26, doesn't let being blinded by a German land mine keep him from his favorite sport. A masseur by profession, Urich's bowling average is 138.

100-pound open—Hugh McDonald, YMCA.

175-pound novice — Pete Nuthall, RBC.

Heavyweight—Jim Parker, SS Legion.

Big Moments in Sport

25 Years Ago

Ottawa Senators today are the new National League Hockey champions. Last night they dropped a 2-1 decision to Montreal Canadiens, but copped the two-game total-goal series 3-2.

Joliat and Boucher notched the Canadian goals last night, while Denenny fired the lone marker for Senators. George Vezina turned in a standout net-minding chore for the losers.

An Edmonton bowling team consisting of the following trundlers left last night for Regina to compete in the Western Canada tournament: Hurman, Nicholson, Skibo, Demas and Kefalas.

Rochon Advances At Tennis Meet

NEW YORK, March 12.—(AP)—Seeded stars got little more than a workout yesterday as play in the 43th United States indoor tennis championships opened with 15 matches in the men's singles division.

The first day's battling on the polished boards of the Seventh Regiment Armory propelled the field almost half way through the initial round but produced nothing in the nature of an upset.

New Yorkers Bill Talbert, Irvin Dorfman and Ed McGrath and Frank Bowden of Madison, N.J., seeded domestic players, reached the second round easily, along with Henri Rochon of Montreal, only seeded foreigner to play yesterday.

Rochon, a lefthander from the Canadian Davis Cup forces, disposed of Don Wheaton of Pelham, N.Y., also a southpaw, 6-0, 6-3.

Bing Crosby used to work in a pickle factory during summer vacations when he was a boy.

Pats Defend Cage Laurels Tonight

When Clare Hollingsworth's Army and Navy Pats swing into action against Calgary McArthurs at the Varsity Drill Hall tonight they will be trying extra hard for a victory.

Reason is for Edith Skitch, captain of the team, who leaves at the week-end for Montreal where she will train for the Olympic trials with the Montreal Olympic Club.

It will be the second match of a best-of-three series for provincial intermediate basketball laurels. Pats invaded the lair of McArthurs last week and registered the first series win.

Coach Gordon Knight of Calgary, announced that his lineup would be the same as used at the Foothills city. Game time is 8:30.

A preliminary contest, likely between Latter Day Saints and Precision, will get under way at 7:30. This tusale is the third of a best-of-three final series for Northern Alberta intermediate men's honors.

Match Charles With Elmer Ray

CHICAGO, March 12.—(AP)—Ezzard Charles of Cincinnati, top-ranking contender for the world's light heavyweight championship last night was matched for a 10-round bout with Elmer (Violent) Ray, Minneapolis, in the Chicago Stadium, April 7.

Jack Hurley, matchmaker for the Stadium Boxing Club, said Charles had pledged to donate $5,000 to the parents of the late Sam Baroudi, who died six hours after receiving a knockout blow delivered by Charles in the Stadium Feb. 26.

Hurley also said the boxing club would donate $5,000 to complete a $10,000 fund for the dead boxer's parents.

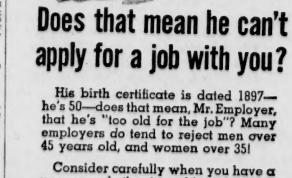
Seven men were charged in police court on one day recently, and one of them received a 15-month jail term. The others were remanded.

Just because he was born in 1897



Does that mean he can't apply for a job with you?

His birth certificate is dated 1897—he's 50—does that mean, Mr. Employer, that he's "too old for the job"? Many employers do tend to reject men over 45 years old, and women over 35!

Consider carefully when you have a vacancy whether it could not be filled as capably by an older man or woman—due to the experience and stability they bring with them.

Habs Belt Leafs 3-1 In Bruising NHL Tilt

MONTREAL, March 12.—(CP)—Montreal Canadiens kept alive their slim hopes of making a playoff spot last night when they checked and skated Toronto Maple Leafs off their feet for a 3-1 victory before 11,002 Forum fans in a typical rough-and-tumble battle between these arch National Hockey League rivals.

In a game replete with high sticks, crushing board checks and a couple of fights, Canadiens scored once in the opening frame, matched Toronto's goal in the second heat, and added the clincher late in the final session to skate off with a well-earned verdict and a season's edge in their games against Leafs.

The triumph gave the Habitants six victories, five losses and one tie in their 12 meetings with the Queen City crew, and boosted them out of the cellar and ahead of Chicago Black Hawks.

It also left them seven points behind Boston in their bid to move into the all-important fourth and last playoff spot. The Habs still have four games to play—a possible eight points—and a collapse by Bruins might still gain them the nod.

LACH NETS FIRST

Elmer Lach scored the first Canadien goal last night to move up within two points of leader Buddy O'Connor of New York in the loop scoring race. Rookie Jacques Locas and Murph Chamberlain collected the other Montreal goals, while defenceman Gus Mortson connected for the lone Leafs counter.

Referee George Gravel dealt out 15 penalties in the bruising contest that at times threatened to get out of control.

REARDON IN BRAWL

Kenny Reardon and Gus Mortson started the first brawl in the first frame when they collided at the Montreal blue line, whipped off their gloves and started throwing punches at each other. Out of this melee, Reardon was fenced with a double minor penalty while Mortson drew a major. Little Howie Meeker and Chamberlain engaged in a slugging match at the same time but escaped penalty.

Near the end of the initial period, Meeker and Bouchard clashed along the boards and began another slugging match. From here on the action tamed down some, but neither club gave quarter, with elbows and knees flying high throughout.

Montreal took a 1-0 lead at 8.22 of the first frame on a neat goal by Lach. Fillion breezed up the right lane, slid a relay to Richard as he hit the Toronto defence who in turn passed to Lach who promptly whipped it past Broda.

Gus Mortson tied it up early in the second frame while Durnan was tangled with Vic Lynn in the Montreal goal. Locas put Montreal ahead 2-1 before the frame ended, and Elmer Chamberlain scored the only goal of the third period.

LINE-UP

Toronto—Broda; Mortson, Thomson; Bentley; Smith, Klukay. Subs: Stanowski, Watson, Metz, Kennedy, Auge, Ezinicki, Lynn, Meeker, Boesch, Barilko.

Montreal — Durnan; Harvey, Bouchard; Lach; Richard, Fillion. Subs: Reardon, Leger, Harmon, Riopelle, Locas, Chamberlain, Reay, Curry, Mosdell, Carveth.

Referee—George Gravel; linesmen—Sam Babcock and George Hayes.

SUMMARY

First Period: 1 — Montreal, Lach (Richard, Fillion), 8.22. Penalties: Lach, Ezinicki (2), Bouchard (2), Reay, Mortson (major), Reardon (2), Meeker.

Second Period: 2—Toronto, Mortson (Meeker), 2:46; 3—Montreal, Locas (Riopelle, Bouchard), 13.25. Penalties: Barilko, Mortson, Harvey.

Third Period: 4—Montreal, Chamberlain (Reay), 17.44. Penalties: Locas, Bouchard.

Hockey Pawns Grouped With Top Marksmen

MONTREAL, March 12.—(CP)—If point standings in the National Hockey League are to be taken seriously there should no longer be any weeping and wailing among hockey's young men when their hard-hearted employers put them on the trading block. The pawns in this season's hockey deals have done well.

Three of the four closely-bunched leaders in the hunt for the league's $1,000 that goes to the top scorer were barter material earlier this season.

O'Connor on Top

Leading the parade is Buddy O'Connor of New York Rangers whose departure from Montreal Canadiens and subsequent good showing caused considerable heart burnings among habitant fans. At this writing Buddy is one point in the lead with 55 notches composed of 23 goals and 32 assists.

Right back of Buddy are Gaye Stewart and Bud Poile of Chicago Black Hawks who used to put forth their wares for Toronto Maple Leafs until Con Smythe decided he'd like to have sharp-shooting Max Bentley working for Leafs and was willing to give five players for him.

Poile has 25 goals, 29 assists, while Stewart is tied with him with 27 and 27.

Max Up There, Too

But with Max right up there in sixth place in the scoring race he sparks to well himself for the boys who've been traded. So there can't really be any regrets over the trade in Toronto either and Chicago fans must be happy.

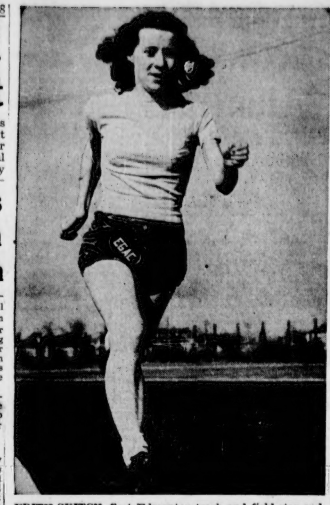
On goals alone the cold statistics appear to bear out the old saw about a change of scenery being good fo the improvement. O'Connor, Stewart, Poile and Bentley have scored 101 goals between them this year, whereas last season, in their more familiar stamping grounds, they collected only 77.

One-Armed Boxer Retains Crown

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., March 12.—(AP)—Tommy Rodgers, one-armed boxer, successfully defended his 135-pound Harvard college title last night by gaining a close three-round decision over Jack Lord.

Rodgers, who lost his left arm in a railroad accident while a youth, relied on his speed and swift hooks to win the officials' nod.

He won the title last year in a technical knockout victory.



EDITH SKITCH, fleet Edmonton track and field star and captain of the Army and Navy cage team, leaves at the weekend for the east where she will prepare for Olympic trials with a Montreal club.

Rookie Given Chance With Cerdan Tonight

NEW YORK, March 12.—(AP)—Give Larvern Roach, 22-year-old Texas ring rookie, a solid chance to upset the 11-to-five favorite Marcel Cerdan of France tonight at Madison Square Garden.

This is the big one for the ex-Marine from Plainview with a possible middleweight title bout at stake for the winner. It also is boxing's big opportunity to uncover one bright new face to relieve the monotony of revived old-timers.

10-YEAR ADVANTAGE

Roach has a 10-year youth advantage over the European champ who never has lost in this country. Going into the 10-round bout, Marcel has won 32 fights in a row, four in North America. The Texan, improving with each start and yet to reach his peak, has won his last 19 starts.

Although the trade has established the veteran Cerdan as a stick-out choice, the truth of the matter is that both are doubtful factors on the big time. Despite European success, Marcel just squeaked past Georgie Abrams, who knocked out Harold Green and Billy Walker and barely decisioned Anton Raadik. In fact Raadik, the hard-punching Estonian, floored the Frenchman three times in the last round at Chicago.

The Texan's real class has yet to be proved, despite his impressive performance against a washed-out Tony Janiro in January. Manager Johnny Abood, assisted by Chris Dundee, has brought him along slowly. He's lost only to Artie Towne, an obscure battler, in 25 fights.

There is little question about Roachs style. He has to get inside stick-out choice, the truth of the to get his man. A forceful body puncher with a good left hand, he realizes he must carry the fight to the flurrying Cerdan from the start.

Marcel, always busy and banking heavily on his ability to get the jump on his opponent with his furious attack, also figures to come out swinging. It has all the earmarks of one of the best fights of the winter.

Bowling Newcomer Soars To Top in "B" Singles

Johnny Lee, stylish five-pin trundler who has been setting a hot pace in his first year on the alleys, forged into the lead in the "B" singles yesterday as Edmonton Bowling Association's annual derby picked up momentum while moving into its sixth and second last day.

It became apparent after Thursday's four shifts concluded that keenest competition of the tourney is developing in the "B" singles. Lee, who rolled a neat 821 score to bounce Reg Tainton back to the runner-up spot, was the third kegler to snatch top honors since the meet opened its doors last Saturday.

TWO MARKS BETTERED

Oonly two of the previously established marks were shattered yesterday, the other coming in "B" doubles when the Cooper-Collings due, posting a lofty 1396 tally, hurdled three teams to take the lead.

A strong contingent of bowlers from Dawson Creek and a few from Calgary took to the alleys last night, but failed to better any marks. They will go at it in earnest tonight, along with 16 Vancouverites and seven ladies from Saskatoon.

A mother and daughter combination—Mrs. C. Fleming and her daughter Viola Foster—joined in the race for "A" doubles laurels, but after putting up a stubborn fight fell short of the mark. At that they averaged well over 200 pins a game.

HARD LINES

Lady Luck, who has been frowning all week, scowled again last night—this time on Alice Johnson, prominent city maple spreader. Miss Johnson was right in the centre grove, missing only two headpins in three games. However, the mean old lady let her down.

In her first game Miss Johnson had five strikes, three corner pins and two headpins, good for only 234. It was almost the same sad tale in her next two strings.

Although Bill Carlson, persistent Edmonton bowler, hasn't copped the high laurels, it isn't for lack of trying. At present Carlson is in second and third spots in "A" doubles, and in runner-up position for mixed double medals.

Dell Wilson Paces Commercial Cagers

Placed by sharp-shooter Del Wilson who flipped in six baskets, Commercial Stenoes last night whipped Garneau 24-8 in a senior high school girls' exhibition match at the McDougall gym.

Commercial lassies were never headed after sweeping to a 6-2 margin in the opening quarter. They were on the long end of a 12-5 count at the breather, and then out-bustled Garneau cagers 12-3 in the final half.

Eleanor McIntosh also was a standout for the winners with eight points, while McLaren notched four for the losers.

Garneau—Riddle 1, McLeod, Empey, Smart 1, Cook 1, McDermid 3, Schultz, McLaren 4, Seliar. Total 8.

Commercial—Wilson 12, Mendryk 2, Hagerman, Kolar 2, Smith, Gibson, McIntosh 6, Arbuthnot. Total 24.

Skip Alexander Takes Golf Lead

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 12.—(AP)—Skip Alexander, six-foot two inch professional, rolled in with a 33-34—67 late yesterday afternoon to take the first day lead in the Jacksonville invitational golf tournament.

He slipped into first place ahead of Fred Haas, Jr., and Herman Keiser, who each posted 68.

Several days of heavy rain left water standing on many fairways of the par 72, 6,282-yard Brentford Municipal course.

Otto Greiner and Marty Furgol were tied at 69, right behind Haas and Keiser. Vic Ghezzi, Dick Metz, Steve Savel and Lew Worsham were two under par at 70.

LYNWOOD ROWE ASKS INJURY-FREE SEASON

CLEARWATER, Fla., March 12.—(AP)—Lynwood (Schoolboy) Rowe would like just one thing before he puts his pitching arm in mothballs. He wants to go through an entire season without an injury.

"I've had something happen to me every year since I began playing professional baseball with Beaumont in 1932," Rowe lamented.

Rowe has been written off the books three times—but each time he bounced back.

This year the 36-year-old righthander of Philadelphia Phillies is being counted on by Manager Ben Chapman as the bellwether of the staff along with Dutch Leonard. He won 14 and lost 10 for last year's tied-for-the-cellar Phils.

Economic Union Canada, U.S. Urged

Countries Need Each Other Says American Publication

NEW YORK, March 12.—(CP)—A "complete and permanent" economic union of the United States and Canada is advocated by Life magazine in an editorial in the current issue.

The editorial, carrying the sub-head, "Canada Needs Us and We We Need Canada in a Violently Contracting World," reviewed the history of past attempts by the two countries to work out reciprocal trade pacts and said economic union is needed now. It added:

"The rate and degree of economic integration that is mutually desirable cannot be computed exactly in advance. Timing is perhaps the most important thing. It must be quick enough and thorough enough to rescue Canada, but slow enough to minimize damage to Britain. And if must be permanent. Canadians must not be left apprehensive about a reversal of U.S. policy . . .

"Political integration may be desirable, and welcome, some day, but it is not now an issue. Economic union makes sense now. It is urgent and desirable for both countries. Who's against it, and why?"

Joint Development Natural Gas Asked

Saskatchewan government proposals to establish a commission for "joint public development" or natural gas resources were revealed by Hon. N. E. Tanner, minister of lands and mines, Thursday.

Saskatchewan's resources minister, J. L. Phelps, suggested calling of inter-provincial conference to discuss plans for natural gas pipeline across prairie provinces.

He hoped it would be possible to arrange for public development of this important natural resource.

His plan was advanced in a letter written Dec. 18, which Tanner answered Dec. 31. In his letter the Alberta minister repeated Alberta's stand—no export of gas until survey had disclosed ample resources to assure Alberta present and future needs.

Correspondence was tabled in response to a request by Elmer E. Roper (CCF, Edmonton).

French Plan Now Adopted

LONDON, March 12.—(Reuters)—The special deputies of the Big Four foreign ministers on Austria today adopted a French proposal to compromise paragraph by paragraph the French and Soviet proposals on the definition of German assets in Austria claimed by the Soviet government.

The decision to accept the proposal put forward by Gen. Pierre Cherriere of France several days ago broke the procedural deadlock which has held up the work of the conference for a week.

But as the proposals dealing with oil were compared there were only two apparent minor modifications of attitude. British delegate James Majoribanks agreed to discuss what proportion of the Steinberg naptha plant in Austria should go to the Soviet Union and suggested that some compromise might be reached "as part of a satisfactory general settlement." He agreed that the output of this plant accounted for almost the whole of the difference between the French and Soviet proposals on the proportion of oil extraction due to the Soviet government.

Broadcasters Urge Radio Ban on Reds

QUEBEC, March 12.—(CP)—Canadian Association of Broadcasters, in a move aimed directly at Communists, yesterday adoped a resolution recommending that known leftists be denied on all Canadian radio stations.

The measure urged that all radio stations refuse "either to sell or give time to speakers representing any party, group or association whatever its name or front that advocates or approves of the overthrow of government other than by peaceful democratic or constitutional methods."

REFER TO EUROPE

It referred to "what has happened recently in Czechoslovakia, Finland, Poland, the Baltic states and other former democratic European countries" and noted that as Canadians broadcasters were concerned "in the continuance of the democratic way of life."

Resolution was passed after K. D. Soble of CHML, Hamilton, raised the point when he said he had received requests from Communist labor organizations for air time. He asked for direction from the meeting whether time should be given.

J. E. Campeau of CKLW, Windsor, Ont., said he had been faced with the same problem and that he was refusing time to Communists.

TOKYO, March 12—(AP)—Kyodo news agency reported yesterday that 25,000 Japanese coal miners on Hokkaido and Kyushu islands struck for higher wages. The walkouts affected 16 mines.

Is Your SCIATICA As Bad As This?

"For many years, I suffered from Sciatica in my left hip," writes Mr. Clayton Brake, Bonne Bay, Nfld. "During attacks, my knee was stiff and painful, and in the evening time felt as though knives were piercing through it. I have spent a lot of money on many kinds of remedies, but without success. I hopefully tried everything that I would hear about—but I didn't get relief, until I heard of and tried Templeton's T-R-C's. T-R-C's proved to be just the medicine I needed to relieve my suffering."

ATTEND BALL, MEET HER MATE

Amana Leaves Australia To Keep Toronto Date

By LESLIE BRODIE

SYDNEY, Australia, March 12.—(CP)—Amana, the grey kangaroo being flown to Toronto for the Byline Ball on April 10, today left her home at Cairns in North Queensland on the first hop of her 11,500 mile journey. The take-off climaxed many transport difficulties.

Arriving at Sydney Lake today, she will rest until March 28 when she embarks again for the Pacific flight to Vancouver. From there she will fly to the Toronto Press Club ball as representative of the International Correspondents Association in Australia and the Sydney Journalists Club.

After the ball she meets Bluey, the grey kangaroo sent as guest of honor to last year's Byline Ball by the Sydney Journalists Club. The couple expect to settle down quietly at the Toronto zoo.

Until today it looked as though Amana would be late for both the ball and her wedding. Australian national airways have given her free passage from Sydney to Vancouver but have a strict ban on the carriage of livestock on planes in Australia. They could see no way of breaking it for Amana without getting angry protests from travellers who have been refused permission to carry pets.

On learning of Amana's social engagements in Canada, the Queensland government offered passage on their trains as a guest of the state. Striking railroads and flooded rivers decreed otherwise.

The North Queensland Sunday Australian, all-out to help Toronto newspaper people, ran a story of her transport problems under a banner headline: "Will Cairns' bride keep her wedding date in Toronto?"

Hope seemed lost until ANA reentered the scene and a spokesman telephoned the Canadian Press to say: "Ban or no ban, Amana is going to that ball and we are going to carry her all the way—and what is more she travels as a guest of the company."

Brownlee Chosen Head Liberal Association

William R. Brownlee was elected president of East Edmonton Federal Liberal association at annual meeting Thursday in 95 Street IOOF hall. He succeeds William Coupland.

Miss Blanche Webb was elected vice-president with P. J. Lazarovich, KC, secretary-treasurer.

CONVENTION DELEGATES

President-elect Brownlee, J. C. Marshall and R. C. Marshall were delegates chosen to represent constituency association at Liberal national convention to be held in Ottawa August 5, 6 and 7.

Provincial Liberal leader Prowse described organization work being carried out in Alberta. He said Alberta cannot prosper as an isolated province and urged election of more liberals to Dominion parliament to assure proper presentation of problems of this province.

He praised consideration given this province in the past by Hon. James A. MacKinnon, Hon. James G. Gardiner, minister of agriculture, and Joseph Dechene, MP.

O.K. Gals, You've Had Your Turn, So Stand Back While Us Men Turn On the Charm!

BOLD LOOK for men will compete in Edmonton with New Look for women. Bob Heydenreich, 10946 21 Ave., sports the newest thing in mens' wear. That's a worsted single-button, double-breasted jacket with shawl collar. Windsor knot in a plain yellow tie is spotlighted by spread points of commander collar on heavy-stitched shirt.

PURSE CONTROL will go back to men now women have had their fling and gents take their turn. A Kent plaid jacket is set off for best effect by spread-away collar holding a panel tie. Wide lapels and wide snap-brim hats are in the spotlight. Homburgs are definitely passe says fashionable Bus Anderson, 9621 106A Ave.

BOILED LOOK is set off to perfection by Murgatroyd Splurff, Skunk Hollow. Says Murgatroyd: "I know the bold look has done worlds of good for me. I feel like a man of distinction. Everywhere I go people stare at me in disbelief." Ted Sharum, 22 Jasper Block, swears his tie will get wider as skirts get longer.

OUTDOORS TOO, the Bold Look is in evidence. All best features of man's revolution in clothing are set off to perfection by this outdoor costume. The topcoat is known as the one button roll, contrasting here with knitted tie and pigskin gloves. Herb Leon, 10038 113 Street, models.

Juvenile Delinquency Curb Seen In New Act

Move to curb juvenile delinquency is seen in bill introduced to legislature Thursday. Bill sharply defines age of youngsters admitted to pool rooms and bowling alleys.

JUVENILE DELINQUENCY

Administration of present regulations is transferred from the attorney-general's department to department of industry and labor.

Youths of 18 may only frequent such places in company of a parent or guardian, but boys may bowl if a member of a school bowling team.

WRITTEN CONSENT REQUIRED

Written consent of parents must be obtained before boys of 16 to 18 years old may be employed as pin-setters.

Second bill calls for change of department of trade and industry to department of industry and labor.

Amendment to Credit Unions Act will cancel incorporation of a credit union if in the opinion of the minister it is being operated in an unsound manner.

Fourth piece of legislation deals with sale of chattels by public auction.

All four were introduced Thursday by Hon. C. E. Gerhart, minister of trade and industry.

Bernard Bowlen, student veteran at University of Alberta, who was elected president of the student body Wednesday. Bowlen was one of four veterans to win positions on varsity Students' Council.

Minority Report In Last Effort

Last effort to have case for minority committee's report restated before third reading of bill to amend Workmen's Compensation Act in the legislature is being made by provincial committee of Canadian Congress of Labor.

Jan Lakeman, chairman of provincial committee of the congress, said Friday Premier Ernest Manning has received request to have the special legislative committee's report reconsidered.

Dr. J. L. Robinson, Social Credit MLA for Medicine Hat, was chairman of special committee that delivered a report to legislative assembly. He also sponsored Bill 31, embodying recommendations of committee's majority report now awaiting third reading.

NEW COURSE AT ALBERTA U.

A course in petroleum engineering will be instituted at the University of Alberta.

Beginning next session, University authorities announced today, course will be offered through department of chemical engineering.

Students will be admitted following completion of first two years of engineering.

It will provide specialized training in development and production fields.

Staff appointments and acquisition of necessary laboratory equipment are now under way.

Back-Door Socialism

CCF attempts to have all grains handled by Canadian Wheat Board are insidious attempts at socialism.

R. Earl Ansley, SC Leduc, branded A. J. E. Liesemer's resolution as "just another back-door method of bringing socialism to this country."

He declared the resolution was devoted more to methods than results and in voting against the resolution he would be voting for "results" wanted by the farm population.

Liesemer had formerly said the majority of farmers wished all grains to be handled by the wheat board.

Social Credit members David Ure, Red Deer, and Chester Sayers, Camrose, said during debate on the resolution they would support it but expressed doubt it was representative of views of all farmers.

Trophy Awarded To Optimist Club

Work of extension department, University of Alberta, was outlined by Don Cameron at a meeting of Optimists Club, Thursday in Macdonald hotel.

Mr. Cameron stressed work of Banff School of Fine Arts, and said it added to facilities of the university services available nowhere else in Canada. Students from all sections of Canada and United States attended school last year.

Trophy to winners of Associated Commercial Travellers' Curling Bonspiel, open to service clubs and other organizations, was presented to Alf P. Gregory, skip of Optimists rink.

Speaks To Lions

Stan Ross, Edmonton barrister and lecturer, was guest speaker at the Lion's club Thursday noon in the Macdonald hotel.

Mr. Ross reviewed international developments during past year.

Battle of Trees Into Extra Inning

Score Stands at 17-11 As Playoff Draws Near

By Jack De Long

Spare-the-trees 11; Thin-'em-out 17.

That was the score of Thursday's battle of the boulevards held in city council chambers with Mayor Harry Ainlay referee-in-chief and aldermen as linesmen.

Meeting was officially billed as a special council meeting to obtain opinions of citizens on parks department program of tree thinning and replanting of streets and boulevards.

Nearly 100 interested citizens turned up and several who couldn't find seats decided to go home.

Council listened to 22 speakers, 12 in favor of program in a general way and 11 stoutly opposed.

Mayor Ainlay announced he had received six letters from persons unable to attend. Five of these favored the program and one was against.

Five minutes speaking time was alloted each person representing an organization. Others were allowed two and one-half minutes each.

After more than an hour of opinions from right, left and centre council accepted proceedings as a progress report and promised further consideration at next regular meeting.

Talkfest became a trifle boisterous at times. Once Mayor Ainlay threatened to have council chamber cleared if loud applause of speakers continued.

Before hearing views of citizens the Mayor quoted excerpts from report of Parks Superintendent A. C. Patterson, explaining tree thinning program.

Supporting the program, R. J. Hilton, horticulturist at University of Alberta, termed tree thinning a "sensible, practical" thing to do.

Dr. Morton E. Hall favored principle of program but suggested new districts be first laid out and planted before thinning is carried out in older districts.

Miss Jean McCallum said many women were afraid of being molested in districts where tree foliage is thick and favored thinning for that reason.

City was giving him "run-around"

John D. Clark complained. Tree foliage was so thick in front of his home he couldn't see out his windows.

He demanded action in trimming by the city.

A tree spread roots 30 feet long under his flower garden, G. H. Saywell said. It also spilled seeds all over his garden and "I have to pick them up one at a time," he added. He was all for getting rid of poplar trees.

Speaking for "spare-the-tree" team, Mrs. D. Myers wanted to know if there would be a new tree program with every new administration.

"No one is going to cut down trees in front of my house or they'll get the best watering they ever had. I'll turn the hose on them," she warned.

Council's program was commended by Dr. G. B. Sanford.

Others who opposed removing too many old boulevard trees included, S. H. Dickson, KC, J. F. Lymburn, KC, William Rea and Carl E. Berg.

Local Roads First Says CCF Leader

Local roads should have preference over main highway construction.

E. E. Roper, CCF leader, criticized expenditure of $8,800,000 on main highways Thursday in Alberta legislature.

Rural people, he said, would appreciate taking a little from the appropriation to add to the "pittance" granted by the government for local roads.

GOVERNMENT ESCAPES ON SPEAKER'S RULING

A want of confidence motion was avoided in legislature Thursday by Speaker's ruling.

An amendment to resolution accepting budget by calling legislators into committee of supply was attempted by E. E. Roper, (CCF leader). He named A. J. E. Liesemer his seconder.

Speaker Peter Dawson forbade acceptance of Liesemer as seconder since he had already spoken in budget debate.

His ruling was accepted without protest.

BILL DEFENSE BY MANNING

Amendments to Fair Practices Regulations will probably meet with disapproval from Retail Merchants' Association.

Premier Ernest Manning said Thursday the government still insisted the principle of the regulations is correct under normal conditions, but present times are abnormal.

"What effect will this have on the little fellow?" questioned Percy Page, Edmonton Independent leader.

"The matter will cause some concern to members of the retail merchants' Association," conceded Mr. Manning.

The government must way against their concern interests of the consuming public in matter of food prices, he added.

Church Head Speaks Sunday

Rev. Mistislaw Skripnik, Ukrainian archbishop of Winnipeg and head of Ukrainian Orthodox church of Canada, will visit Edmonton Saturday and Sunday in the course of a tour of western Canadian points.

This will be Archbishop Skripnik's first visit to Edmonton and to Ukrainian Orthodox Church of St. John here. He will celebrate high mass Sunday, assisted by Rev. Michael Fyk of Radway and Rev. P. Mienychuk, parish priest of St. John church.

Archbishop Skripnik became head of Ukrainian Orthodox Church of Canada last fall upon resignation of Archbishop Ivan Theodorovich of Philadelphia.

Archbishop Skripnik came to Canada in 1947 after spending several years in European countries.

Mounties Will Ride Jeeps Instead Horses

Scarlet-coated Royal Canadian Mounted Police will be mechanized in their patrol of Alaska highway in the Yukon. A survey of the possible use of horses by the mounties in patrolling the highway was discarded when it was found the upkeep would be much more than on mechanized vehicles.

Police are faced with a rush of homeseekers from United States to Alaska now the highway has been opened to unregulated traffic.

Inspector T. H. Cronkhite, White Horse, Y.T., division, said police are faced with a most unhappy situation with the opening of the 1,600-mile-long road.

Ill-equipped parties are on the road, trying to crash through to Fairbanks. Trailers, jallopies and trucks are all in the rush.

Inspector told of one party from Arkansas he met between Fort Nelson, B.C., and Lower Post, B.C. "The women were bare-legged and it was 50 below zero."

WERE OFF THE ROAD

"The outfit had go off the road and was unable to get back without the help of a truck with a strong towline," Inspector said.

"Their trailer was warm enough while the fuel oil held out, but they were without fuel and without gas, and 100 miles from nowhere."

Inspector Cronkhite said the highway was in excellent shape on his trip from Whitehorse.

Highway is devoid of all conveniences of the usual heavy traffic roads. There are few if any gas stations along the way and unless a party has its own living accommodation the journey is rough and dangerous.

Memory Honored By Scholarship

Memory of pioneer Edmonton business man will be honored by a University scholarship.

University authorities here said today the Sam J. Gorman scholarship has been created by executors of estate of the late Sam Gorman.

Scholarship will be financed by royalties from oil produced on property belonging to the estate. Scholarship share is expected to yield $7,000.

University proposes to award $200 annually to a student of petroleum engineering on the basis of need as well as scholarship.

SUGGESTS TAKING UP WELFARE

Williams Assails Drys For Attack on Legion

Alberta has become "tinged" with respectability,

W. J. Williams, (Vet., Edmonton), told legislators Thursday, "We have become so tinged with respectability we are afraid to ask for what is reasonable."

British Columbia legislators are on the right track in asking for beer and wine with meals, he said.

Williams added he doesn't know why Alberta's temperance people "don't go home and mind their own business."

"Let them come down with me some morning for a visit to some of Edmonton's slums such as the former army huts at 107 avenue and 109 street, and I'll show them something to really worry about," he declared.

He complained temperance groups have "had a go" at the Legion.

In Legion club rooms in Edmonton, he declared, men drink in a decent manner and club rooms are properly conducted.

Williams charged during budget debate that public opinion would have it Alberta Treasury Branches have become "piggy banks" for convenience of government members.

He insisted he was only reporting rumors and not making specific charges.

He asked a commission be set up to consider all treasury branch loans of over $1,000 to members of the assembly or to cabinet ministers.

SHOPPING GUIDE

"Old-Style" Camisoles Add to "New Look"

By Bea Thrifty

Can't say I'm sorry to see ol' man winter being knocked for a loop. In fact I don't think anyone will be happier than I to see the flowers that bloom in the spring—tra-la. Of course, with the spring comes spring-cleaning—but we must learn to accept the bitter with the sweet.

* * *

Shades of mother's girlhood days! Camisoles are coming back into their own. With blouses 'n skirts not-to-be-hid for "new look" wear, 1948 gals are all enthused about lacy and be-ribboned "camisoles."

While on the subject of satins 'n laces let me tell you about white and tea rose crepe half-slips (or petticoats as mother would call them) selling for a song at $1.98.

Made with elastic tops and side hip panels and usually selling for $2.95 or $3.50—they're a good buy.

Give your kitchen a fresh-as-spring-look with a sparkling new coat of paint. There's a comparatively new product on the market that goes on slick as a whistle and is washable to boot. You can buy a quart for $1.49 and it goes a long, long way.

* * *

Protect your Sunday shoes, and your others too, for that matter, with bright colored rubber boots. You can buy fire-truck-red jobs, flat-heeled or otherwise for around $3.95. Others, more conservative pull-on types, sell for $2.95.

* * *

If you think boots are too heavy —there are little half rubbers in all colors. They can be folded into nothing and tucked away in a special container in your purse when you're not using them.

Question of the day is: What makes a meringue leathery? Answer to that is simple . . . too long cooking or cooking at too high a temperature. Never bake a meringue at more than 300 degrees F.

* * *

If you're planning to launder winter woolens before, tucking them away for spring and summer, there's a special solution selling at 2/3 original price. This solution has proven to be fair gentler with your precious sweaters, and scarves than ordinary soap.

* * *

To make a colorful assortment of fillings for dainty tea-time sandwiches use cream cheese with minced radish peel. Or try snappy yellow cheese with minced green pepper. With ribbon sandwiches put cream cheese on one layer and green mint jelly on the other. Also tastes mighty fine.

All during the war-years I had a tremendous craving for pineapple —because you couldn't buy it for love or money. Now I'm in my element 'cause I can buy 105-ounce tins of Cuban crushed pineapple for $1.19. I use it for fruit whips, sauces for a delectable ham dish, salads and all kinds of things.

* * *

Another asset to imaginative cookery is tomato sauce. It sells for 21c a tin and is a terrific time-saver for the housewife who specializes in casserole art. Even the lowly sausage takes on new prestige when baked in the oven with tomato sauce and a whisper of minced onion.

WASHING your face thoroughly, as Actress Virginia Welles is doing above, as many as five times daily will help rid you you of blackheads.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

(THE FRIDAY QUESTION BOX)

Q. "Can you tell me what causes blackheads?"

A. Blackheads usually accompany an oily skin. The little pores become packed with dirt and waste matter. Avoid these by washing your face as many as five times a day with soap and water if your skin is oily. Also—watch your diet and cut out greasy, oily, rich foods.

Q. "I have practically no lines on my face except a very deep line between my eyes. If it were not for this I would look 15 years younger than I am. My skin is not dry but rather oily and I am virtually line free except for this one deep crease. Surely something can be done for it! Please help me!"

A. Quite a few women are in the same fix. There is little benefit in working on the line which is already there unless you overcome the habit which produced it. You evidently do frown quite often. This facial habit is often indulged in even by women with happy temperaments.

First watch this. I think it would be helpful in discarding this habit if you pasted a little bit of wrinkle-removing tape over the line and keep it there in the daytime when you are at home. Even when good friends are visiting, you could explain that you are trying to break yourself frowning.

Women who are tense often draw the brows together without thinking. Then, too, before retiring at night apply cream and massage along the line your forefinger.

Q. "I have a daughter 11 years old who does not carry herself correctly. She seems to be round shouldered. Please give me an exercise."

A. I believe you can appeal to her interest by having her stand in front of a mirror with a sweater and skirt on. Ask her to stand with her side toward the mirror and to notice the difference in her figure when she stands correctly and when she slumps.

She will immediately notice how much prettier she looks—how her waist becomes smaller and her bust more prominent when her tummy is pulled in—her hips are tucked under and her spine is straight. Also have her take the following two exercises.

(1) Stand erect. Make large circles with the arms, crossing them low in front of the body and reaching up high as they are overhead. As the arms come down to the sidewise position pull them back as they come down.

(2) Lie on your back on the floor, with the arms resting on the floor, extending out from the shoulders, fingers on the floor. Lift the shoulders from the floor keeping the head on the floor but rolling it backward. Fingertips remain on the floor. Relax. Continue.

Q. "I have never seen this question answered in your column. Is there an exercise to reduce a large nose?"

A. No. Plastic surgery is the only way I know. Minimize it with the correct hairdo and makeup.

Small and medium bluefish are caught in gill nets, and larger sizes are caught with a hook and line.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Stuttering is Usually Passing Phenomenon

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

The stuttering which children tend to develop at about three years of age, is usually a passing phenomenon. The mother expresses it this way, "Suddenly, he began to stammer." It is only that it seems sudden, for this behavior is related to other tensions which develop at about this time. The mother may notice, too, that the child's speech becomes high and very loud.

Sometimes the stammering is connected with some event in the child's life which has upset him. The coming of a new baby is an experience which all children do not take in stride. They have to adjust to it and while they make the adjustment they are temporarily nervous and stammering might be an indication of this.

To move into a new neighborhood, or to a strange town, is not as pleasantly exciting to a child as it may be to the parents. Any move is a change and some children react poorly to change and show their tension by uneven speech.

Also, at this age, the child is acquiring new words and putting them into sentences. Heretofore, he could talk with one or two words and punctuate them with helpful gestures and cries. Now he is struggling to put his thoughts into words and bring about in sentences a fulfilment of his desires. Parents encourage this by saying, "Now, you tell me what you want and I'll get it for you." The effort to do this is often too much for the eager, nervous child.

Stuttering of this type, should be short-lived. Within six months the child will have advanced into another and calmer stage of growth. He will have acquired a firmer grasp on his new vocabulary and will be in a position to let the words flow out smoothly.

The stammering child does not need special exercise in speaking, nor help in ending his sentences. To make him self-conscious of his speech is to increase his strain and make it more difficult for him to speak.

Perhaps he needs most of all to feel a sense of ease and calm in his home, to be given more loving attention if it is necessary to help him over the hump of a new baby, or a new home or environment, and then wait for time itself to give him a better command of his vocabularly.

Our leaflet No. 43 "The Stammering Child," may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of The Edmonton Bulletin.

Mild Poisoning But No Deaths

TOKYO, March 12— (AP) —A Russian assertion that 4,000 Japanese had died after eating American soybean flour was denied yesterday by allied headquarters. Col. Crawford Sams, Gen. MacArthur's public health officer, said about 800 Japanese had suffered a mild case of poisoning after eating the flour, but there were no deaths.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS—

Young Girls Warned Against Philanderers

The wolves are on the prowl, seeking whom they may devour, and so many unwary Red Riding Hoods are playing along the road that leads to their destruction. He warned in time, little girls. Never again will you be in such peril. Turn about and run back to your Mamas as fast as you can.

For the married wolf is the most dangerous and cruel of all his bloody tribe, and no compassion for you will keep him from casting you aside when he has tired of you and satisfied his lust for youth and freshness and unsophistication and the beast is always on the scent of new victims.

I am talking now about the married philanderers who prey on young girls, without even a single vestige of pity for the lives they are wrecking. There isn't a day that I do not get many letters from guileless young girls who tell me that they are in love with married men who are desperately in love with them, but who cannot marry them because they already have wives and little children.

"I know John loves me because he tells me so, and it simply breaks his heart that we have to keep our love a secret and can't live openly together. But he is so noble that he doesn't feel that he has a right to break up his home and be separated from his kids, who are devoted to him," they write. "And, of course, it would be bad for his business, but he tells me to just be patient and he will make everything all right just as soon as he can."

And the poor little obsessed victim of man's perfidy believes every word of these black lies and wears her youth out in weary waiting. Or, worse still, throws her cap over the windmill and becomes the temporary inhabitant of a love nest.

It is easy enough to understand why so many girls fall in love with married men. Generally it is their boss who sweeps them off their feet, and that is because he is older, more worldly wise, more experienced in handling women, and has all the technique of love making at his fingers' end. No young and inexperienced girl is a match for an old rose and because she knows it poor little gullible Sally has given him her heart to play with.

There is no tragedy more pitiful than that of the girl in love with a married man. If by any chance the man to whom she has given her very soul refuses her affection, yet cannot break the bonds that tie him to another woman, she lives a life of jealousy of the woman who has the place that she feels should be her own, that makes it a hell on earth.

And if she loves a man who never loves her enough to want to marry her, she knows the bitterness and the emptiness of long years of wishful waiting and blighted hopes that wither her beauty and her youth so that no man wants her.

Perhaps there is no way in which the heart can be controlled or girls foolproofed against falling in love with attractive married men, but they can minimize their danger if, when they begin to feel that way about a man who is another woman's property, they will run home to Mother.

It is the only way they can save themselves from the big, bad wolves, who will get them if they don't watch out.

Thru the LOOKING GLASS

by DOLORES KIMBALL

Beauty is as beauty does.

So goes the old adage. But today the praise applies to more than good behavior. Probably never in history were there more chances for you to improve on the looks Mother Nature doled out to you.

Making the most of beauty aids takes great skill. "Choose right" and "use right" are good mottos to paste to your mirror.

• • •

Words from the wise tell you a girl's best beauty secret is using the right kind of powder base. It gives the illusion of a lovier complexion—improves other make-up too. Your skill lies in fooling the eye—so use less than you may think you need.

Avoid uncovered patches near hairline, upper lip or under jaw. Mirror-check in a good light is a must—full face and from both sides.

• • •

As every mother's daughter knows, make-up looks better on a very clean skin. Anyone well-versed in the art of cosmetics will say that a little enthusiasm in the matter of thorough cleansing will take you a long way on the road to beauty. One Edmonton beauty fair said she cleanses her skin with mild soap and water—thoroughly—then she repeats the performance just for good measure.

• • •

Looking agreeable is important to your good looks, so away with sulky mouths. For a pleasing expression, lipstick should go up slightly at the corners, have a clean graceful line. Many of the new lipstick shades have a blue undertone — but stay away from them unless your coloring will blend with it.

• • •

Cake make-up provides insurance against "shine". Girls with oily skins are especially devoted to it and it's available in a variety of blended shades by most well-known cosmetic manufacturers.

One girl in the cosmetic department of one large city store, who incidentally has a beautifully creamy complexion herself, suggests that application of cake make-up with skin freshener instead of water helps the make-up to set better. Also a suggestion of vanishing cream underneath gives a lovlier, more lasting finish.

• • •

Special note for business girls or women "on the go" : If you need a new face-do before the end of the day—be off with the old before you're on with the new. Keep cotton, tissues and a quick clean-up preparation—either cream or liquid—in your desk drawer. Make a habit of using them EVERY time before renewing make-up.

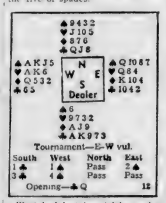
Would You Make 4 Spades on This

By William E. McKenney

You may wonder why West bid a spade instead of doubling. If West had doubled East would have played the contract in spades and there would be no point to my story. However, when the hand was played West bid one spade and as a result he became declarer.

Suppose you found yourself playing the West hand at four spades. Would you make the contract?

The opening lead of the queen of clubs held the trick. North continued with the jack, which also held. The natural play for North was to continue with the eight of clubs. South played the king and declarer trumped with the five of spades.



Tournament—E-W vul.

South	West	North	East
1 ♠	1 ♠	Pass	2 ♣
3 ♠	4 ♣	Pass	Pass

Opening—♣ Q

West had lost two tricks, and it looked as if he might have to lose two diamonds. He cashed the ace and king of spades, then ran off three heart tricks. At trick nine he led the deuce of diamonds and went up with dummy's king. South won.

If South returned a club or a heart, declarer would trump with the jack of spades and win the last three tricks with his queen of diamonds and dummy's queen-ten of spades. However, South returned the nine of diamonds, and declarer had only one play. He had to let it ride to dummy's ten.

The contract could have been defeated if North had shifted to a diamond instead of playing the third club. But that is what is called a "double dummy" play. The problem in bridge is to make the most of every opportunity given you, and that is what declarer did.

Embassy Announces Lithuanians Should Register Nationality

OTTAWA, March 12.—(CP)—The Russian embassy in Ottawa has announced in a Russian-language newspaper in Winnipeg that Lithuanian nationals from four years of what now is the Lithuanian republic of the Soviet Union who have not become Canadian citizens should register as Soviet citizens before next June 1 if they have not already done so.

An External Affairs department spokesman said the Russian embassy had not informed the department of this announcement and "we regret we were not consulted in advance."

Compliance with the requirement is purely voluntary but it was said if any Lithuanian becomes a Soviet citizen, rather than a Canadian citizen, they are subject to alien laws and deportation, although this does not mean they would be deported.

JOCKEYS, HORSEMEN BOOST SNIDER SEARCH

MIAMI, Fla., March 12. — (AP) — Horsemen posted rewards and made plans for a search of their own yesterday for Jockey Al Snider of Calgary, Alta., and two companions missing for six days on a fishing trip in the Florida Keys.

The Jockeys Guild, headed by Porter Roberts, Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association jointly offered $1,000 for finding each of the missing men, dead or alive. An additional $500 was offered to anyone locating the 16-foot plywood boat they were in when they disappeared last Friday.

Three friends of Snider had already posted $5,000 reward for anyone finding the men alive.

Missing with Snider are C. H. (Tobe) Trotter, Miami horse trainer, and Donald Fraser, Toronto business man.

Jockeys and members of the HBPA, planned to charter planes, boats and a blimp to scour the area in which the men disappeared.

U.S. Consulate Is Threatened

By CHARLES L. DAVIDSON

JERUSALEM, March 12.—(AP)—An anonymous bomb threat today emptied the United States consulate building. 300 yards from the blasted Jewish Agency headquarters where yesterday 13 were killed and nearly 100 were injured.

American personnel returned to their offices after an hour-long search by police failed to turn up any explosives. The consular staff had moved out after a telephone caller said in English:

"Get out of the building—it will blow up in five minutes."

The building also is used as a residence by Consul General Robert B. Mcatee, Consul William Porter and Vice-Consul Wells Stabler.

The death in a hospital of another victim raised the death toll to 13 in yesterday's bombing of the Zion Square area of Jerusalem. The agency says an Arab, driving a car stolen from the American consulate, parked it and afterwards made and ignited a bomb. Three of the dead were women.

Dominion Will Get More Textiles

MANCHESTER, England, March 12.—(CP)—Sir Raymond Streat, chairman of the British Cotton Board, said yesterday the United Kingdom would "soon" be able to increase exports of textiles to Canada by 100,000,000 yards worth about £10,000,000 ($40,000,000).

He did not specify further the period to be covered by the shipments.

Sir Raymond said the potential Canadian market for British, textiles is three times the figure he named and that the Dominion, since cutting cotton imports from the United States by 75 per cent, is eager to do further British business on the basis of "firm prices and reasonable delivery."

Cotton is looked on by British industrialists as the brightest hope of increasing dollar earnings in the Dominion to pay for essential goods such as Canadian wheat, bacon and eggs.

Tory Opposition Elated by Victory

LONDON, March 12.—(Reuters)—British Conservative opposition in Parliament today hailed their candidate's victory in yesterday's North Croydon parliamentary by-election as the greatest stimulus their party has had since the reverses of the 1945 general election.

Conservatives were defending their own seat, but they won it in the face of only the 7th result, therefore, was unpredictable. The verdict, increasing the Conservative majority from dashed Labor's hope of capturing its first seat from the opposition in a by-election.

The constituency this time had 12,000 new voters compared with 1945. Clearly the Conservatives picked up a considerable proportion of the increase. Liberals dropped some 4,000 votes. Some of these presumably went to the Conservatives, still some, since Labor's vote flow by nearly 2,000, to the government candidate.

Indifference Aids Reds in Dominion To Bolster Hand

OTTAWA, March 12.—(CP)—E. D. Fulton (PC—Kamloops) said last night that Communism's menace to freedom is heightened in Canada by "our own indifference to our lazy methods of government."

"We are at the crossroads and must choose which way of life we wish to follow," he said in an address at a semi-annual meeting of the directors of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association.

The press and government were primarily responsible for arousing Canadians to "the dangers from within" and "making them to determine their stand.

FIRE FIGHTERS SHOW AERIAL

Edmonton's fire laddies will strut their stuff on the market square at 2:30 p.m. Monday.

They will give a demonstration of the new 100-foot aerial ladder that was added to the fire department's equipment Thursday.

Mayor Harry Anlay will be on hand to make first hoist of the ladder.

Jimmy Gilmore, Chicago leukemia victim, wants an unusual present for his 18th birthday. He wants blood. He has had 38 transfusions in the past two years and doctors say he will need at least 20 more.

British Beaches Already Crowded

LONDON, March 12.—(Reuters)—The summerlike weekend which is bathing Southern England in sunshine daily is likely to last over the weekend. The air ministry forecasts "little general change for several days."

London temperatures yesterday were three degrees above Wednesday's highest, the maximum being 63.

At seaside resorts there were scenes suggesting the start of the holiday season, and beaches were crowded.

Chile May Cause Big Rift in UN

Formal Request Is Made For Red Coup Intervention

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., March 12.—(BUP)—Chile formally called on the United Nations Security Council to intervene in the Czechoslovak crisis and take action against Russia for allegedly supervising the Communist seizure of power.

Action appeared to assure a public Security Council showdown between the west and Russia on Communist expansion in Europe.

Chilean UN Delegate Hernan Santa Cruz announced informally that he was filing a formal complaint against Russia with UN Secretary General Trygve Lie.

GIVEN INSTRUCTIONS

Santa Cruz was instructed by his government to sponsor the pigeonholed move made by Jan Papanek of Czechoslovakia to have the UN intervene in the political situation in Prague on grounds that it represents a threat to international peace.

Russia will be named in the council as engineer of the Feb. 20 coup in which the Czech Communists seized power.

CAN BLOCK ACTION

By means of the Big Five veto power, Russia will be able to block any concrete UN action against Moscow or the Communists.

It was almost certain, however, that the Soviets would not be able to block a fiery debate of the Czech situation and the link between the Kremlin and the present Communist government in Prague. Many UN observers expressed belief that it will be perhaps the most serious matter ever handled in the UN. Some felt it might lead to major changes in the present setup of the world organization, bringing into doubt the tenure of Russia's participation in the UN.

COMMON EUROPEAN CITIZENSHIP IS URGED

LONDON, March 12.—(AP)—Resolution calling for a constitutional convention to unite all Western Europe with a common citizenship was submitted to the House of Commons today.

Seventy-three members of five political parties signed the resolution.

Winston Churchill, opposition leader who called for a "United States of Europe" 18 months ago, was not a signer, but he promised the group he would seek a day's parliamentary debate on their plan.

2 Dead, One Missing in Fire

MONCTON, N.B., March 12.—(CP)—Two persons are dead and little hope is held that a missing woman will be found alive after an early morning fire today destroyed a three-storey apartment building.

Dead were identified as Clifford DeRoche, 50, whose wife is missing and is feared to have perished, and Alfred Sonier, about 30 years of age.

Seven other persons who had been missing were found by police, who reported that all but two of 32 injured had been discharged from hospital after treatment for superficial hurts.

Police said the two remaining in hospital were Alfred DeRoche and Telesphore Leblanc, suffering from back injuries sustained in leaping from the flaming building.

Cause of the blaze was not known immediately.

Apartments on the second and third storeys of the building in the business section housed 29 persons. Most of the injured suffered their hurts when they leaped from upstairs windows. None was reported in serious condition.

WARNED BY CABBIES

Fire was discovered at 2:20 a.m. by two taxi drivers who rushed up the flaming stairs of the building to warn the residents after turning in the alarm.

Firemen recovered the bodies of DeRoche, a former boxer known as Kid Roach, and Sonier from a third-storey apartment.

EGG MARKET

There is no appreciable change in the egg market this week. Receipts show a 4% decrease over last week. Deliveries to Registered Stations are being retarded by bad road conditions. This is also having its effect on the general quality, the percentage of Grade A for this week being 78% as compared to 80% last week. The market is firm and strong on all grades with all surplus moving into Special Products Board channels. During the week eight carlots moved into drying channels for immediate drying, and an additional three carlots moved into storage under the Fall Contract. Storing is being retarded due to the cold weather of the past two weeks as the majority of dealers participating are directing deliveries to dryers, considering the possibility of chilled eggs at this time. Retail demand is good, especially on Grade A Large. All prices remain unchanged.

Dealers quote country shippers, delivered Edmonton, for eggs: Grade A large, 37; A medium, 35; A pullet, 29, grade B, 31; C, 24.

Wholesalers quote retailers for loose eggs: A large, 43; A medium, 41; A pullet, 35; grade B, 37; C, 20.

Retailers to consumers, average price for loose eggs: Grade A large, 47; A medium, 46; A pullet, 40.

BUTTER PRICES

Wholesale prices for creamery butter, wrapped prints, are: First grade 67, second grade 63, third grade 59.

CREAM PRICES

Prices for cream delivered to Edmonton creameries (initial pool payments one cent less) basis per pound butterfat. Special grade 71, first grade 69, second 61, off-grade 56.

PRODUCE MARKET

MONTREAL, March 12.—(CP)—Produce prices:

Butter: Wholesale Que. pasteurized, fresh and storage No. 1 67¾.

CANADIAN DOLLAR

NEW YORK, March 12.—(CP)—The Canadian dollar was down ⅛ of a cent at a discount of 10½ per cent in mid-day foreign exchange dealings today. The pound sterling was unchanged at $4.03¼.

OIL

Another attempt to extend the Edmonton oilfield will be made shortly when Calmar Midwest Oils Limited gets a rig to drill on the north-west quarter of 31-49-26. This is half a mile west and a little south of Continental Globe Leduc-West No. 11 which has just topped the Devonian at 4,564 feet. It is 4 miles south of Globe Leduc West No. 1.

* * *

It is expected that a change in the natural gas and petroleum lease regulations will be made next week. New rules may restrict the area that may be held in a township by one company in accordance with the new government policy. The new regulations will replace those issued last summer.

* * *

Imperial No. 32 was tested in the D2 on Thursday. Gas flowed at the rate of 260,000 cubic feet daily. Oil appeared in 18 minutes. The well will be drilled down to offset D3 production of Atlantic No. 1.

* * *

Any person calling Imperial Oil Limited concerning drilling progress is almost certain to be advised to contact Fred Robertson of the production department. Fred is a graduate of Edmonton Technical School and joined the staff of Imperial Oil as a cat-skinner at Norman Wells in 1943. At present he is transportation manager of the company for the province of Alberta.

How production public relations got intermeshed with transportation is a question that Fred can't answer. The teletype contact with Calgary is in his office and all drilling information goes to Calgary before being released to the public.

Transportation in the drilling game is a highly specialized business in which very few companies are engaged. Imperial Oil Limited transports its own drilling rigs which are engaged in wildcat operations in various parts of the province.

* * *

Independent drilling contractors are dependent upon James and Reimer Limited, a Calgary concern, for most of the rig moving jobs. A nightmare to the popular "Wig" Wiggins, Edmonton manager, is to have a half dozen rigs ready to move at the same time. Rig moving is a day and night proposition.

The derrick is torn down and re-erected on the new site by other specialized companies. If the move is a short one on level ground, it may be skidded to the new location.

Europe Industry Showing Recovery

Better World Grain Prospects Mean Lower Commodity Prices

By The Canadian Press

Close on the recent world-wide grain surveys that showed excellent prospects for bumper crops, comes a survey of industrial recovery in those same countries which, since the end of the last war, have been almost entirely dependent on United States supplies.

Production figures for those European countries hardest hit by the war show that during the last half of 1946 Germany averaged about 34 per cent of the 1938 production. France in the last quarter of 1946 and in January, 1947, was about 90 per cent of the 1938 rate. In Belgium, production was about equalled while in Poland it was about 105 per cent of the 1937 rate. Production figures from Britain, which gets most of her grain from Canada, also indicate an increase over pre-war levels.

NEAR PRE-WAR LEVEL

None of these countries' current production levels is much below 90 per cent of pre-war, and a continued increase is anticipated.

The grain prospects survey exerted a downward pressure on commodity prices in the United States since the world-wide demand for western hemisphere grains is bound to diminish with increasing supplies elsewhere. From the industrial survey in Europe it would appear that North American industry, in its turn, must face a diminishing demand.

Reports from the United States indicate a continued high level of domestic demand but, alongside these, there are reports of easier availability of numerous items. Export figures also show gradual decline in almost direct ratio to increased production in Europe.

SHOULD DECLINE

Price levels of industrial stocks and market trends generally reflect the re-evaluation of corporate securities by important number of investors.

For the American public, prospects of lower prices at the retail level seem increasingly brighter.

Commodity prices in the United States weakened yesterday with grains at Chicago showing losses. New York cotton moved over a wide range in thin dealings and the close found prices lower. Stock markets reflected commodity trends and New York narrowed down a brisk opening while Toronto and Montreal were easier.

Oats and Barley Finish Strongly

WINNIPEG, March 12.—(CP)—Oats and barley futures today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange showed independent strength in the last half of the session and early small losses were erased. Buying in oats by shippers came in on the upturn. Malting demand contributed to the upward trend in barley. Offerings contracted on the upturn during the nervous and moderately active trade.

A few buying orders came into May rye futures and were believed to represent export accumulation. Commission house selling was evident in the July and October futures, reflecting an easier tone at Chicago.

Class two wheat prices were reduced three cents.

No export business in Canadian wheat was reported.

AT CHICAGO

CHICAGO, March 12.—(AP)—Nearby contracts of all grains on the board of trade eased today, but contracts calling for delivery late this year displayed resistance to the decline. Dealers said there was some selling of May futures and buying of the deferred contracts.

The market opened strong. News that the United States government had made substantial purchases of flour overnight caused a good rush of buying. But it lasted only a few minutes. There were numerous selling orders over the market, which quickly turned the price trend.

An agriculture department official said the amount of flour bought by the government would not be made known until after the market closed.

Wheat closed 2 cents lower to ¼ higher, corn was 1¼ lower to 1½ higher and oats were ⅜ lower to 1⅛ higher.

LONDON, March 12.—(CP)—Part of a Royal Wedding gift of 1,000 hams from Kamloops, B.C. to the British people was distributed yesterday in the borough of Marylebone by Mayor Reneson Coucher.

A whole ham was given to each of 150 mothers of large families—as much meat as they are able to buy in two months under the tight British ration.

Financial Review

TORONTO, March 12.—(CP)—With golds running well in the lead, stocks on the Toronto Stock Exchange today took a sharp retreat in one of the busiest days this year.

Losses outnumbered gains among the golds by more than 10 to one. In the industrial lists the ratio was about four to one while base metals and western oils posted few gains as against sizeable lists of losses. Volume for the day was about 1,300,000 shares.

The entire mining list began to sag and showed sizeable losses before mid-day. A mild firming trend was established in early afternoon trading but recoveries were few and of a minor nature.

Sherritt made the best recovery among the base metals but was still down about 10 cents towards the close. Falconbridge added a few cents but losers included Smelters, East Sullivan, Eureka, Golden Manitou, Labrador, Noranda, Osisko, Quemont and Steep Rock. Western oils eased narrowly for nearly all issues traded.

* * *

MONTREAL, March 12.—(CP)—Prices continued to edge downward in industrials in moderately active dealings up to the final hour on the stock exchange and curb market today. Trading was fairly active in mines and losses were in the majority.

In a quiet utility group, Winnipeg Electric lost ⅜.

* * *

NEW YORK, March 12.—(AP)—A sleepy stock market worked both sides of the street today without developing any real business.

The pace was relatively sluggish from the start. Prices eased here and there after midday. While scattered pivotals made some headway, fractional declines were widely distributed near the close.

Transfers for the five hours dwindled to around 650,000 shares, among the lows for the year.

Speculative and investment caution was accentuated by the critical international situation as stressed by State Secretary Marshall. Thoughts of economic readjustments inspired some selling.

Record earnings for important companies were pretty well ignored. Congressional steps toward tax reduction provided a prop for sentiment.

Canadian issues were lower. Hiram Walker droped ⅜. Canadian Pacific and Dome Mines eased ⅛. McIntyre and Distillers Seagrams held unchanged.

Labor Owned Paper Has Union Trouble

GLACE BAY, N.S., March 12.—(CP)—The Glace Bay Gazette, which editorially supports mine labor in the Nova Scotia coal fields, was involved yesterday in a dispute with the Glace Bay Typographical Union.

The printers, a directly-chartered local of the Canadian Congress of Labor—with which the United Mine Workers are affiliated—charged the Gazette locked them out and established wages lower than union rates. For this alleged action the Typographical Union suspended from membership four men who had just become part-owners of the Gazette.

Sex-Slayer Must Pay With Life

CLEVELAND, March 12.—(AP)—Harold A. Beach, 23, must die in the electric chair for the New Year's night sex slaying of eight-year-old Sheila Ann Tuley, a jury decided last night. The jury of seven women and five men deliberated three hours and two minutes before reaching a fourth-ballot verdict of first degree murder. The panel failed to recommend mercy, making the death sentence mandatory.

SOUTH ST. PAUL, Minn., March 12.—(AP)—The South St. Paul livestock marketing committee today placed an embargo on all livestock shipments to this market effective immediately.

LATEST INVENTION KILLS ALL FEAR

Dentists Hold No Terror After Little Pill Taken

LOS ANGELES, March 12.—(BUP)—Two dentists said today they had developed a harmless pill which will take away all fear of that trip to the dentist.

The dentists said that if you take the pill, a mild barbiturate, when you leave the house, you can walk fearlessly into the doctor's office.

Drs. Milton Levine and Robert Hoyt, of White Memorial hospital's institute of experimental medicine, said the pill prevents fear and eliminates the rest of the pain through a new painless technique of injecting anesthetic.

The new treatment was tested successfully on more than 200 patients in the last two years.

The pills have no bad effects on children if used in the amounts recommended, they said.

The patient will be calm and relaxed for a half hour or so after the treatment, the dentists said, but the effect will wear off then and leave no pain.

Etiquette-Wise Know How To Introduce

Introductions are so simple when you know how, so uncomfortable when you don't. Be sure of the rules and you'll be perfectly at ease whether called on to introduce two celebrities, or your current beau to your mother.

The rules are based on common sense. You introduce a man to a woman, a younger person to an older person of the same sex. Thus, it's "Mother, this is John Grey," and "Mrs. Lyons, do you know Miss Lee?"

Notice that a poised person avoids such crude phrases as, "Let me make you acquainted with," and "Shake hands with." It's good policy, too, to save a somewhat pompous phrase like, "May I present" for introductions to high ranking persons.

People judge you by your etiquette; be sure of every point. Our Reader Service booklet No. 45 answers many of your questions about introductions, table manners, letter writing. Also etiquette at dances, in restaurants, at the movies, in business. Special tips to teens, covering dates, good-night kisses, other day-to-day problems. Send 30 cents (coin) for "New Book of Everyday Etiquette" to the Edmonton Bulletin, Reader Service, 60 Front St., W. Toronto. Print name, address, booklet title and No. 45.

Truman Pits U.S. Against Reds

President Admits His Faith In Peace Outlook Shaken

By John M. Hibgtower

WASHINGTON, March 12.—(AP)—President Truman today pitted the full political power and prestige of the United States against the spread of Communism anywhere.

At the same time a five-point administration plan began to emerge, coming to grips with what State Secretary Marshall considers a "great crisis" in the world.

A few hours apart, both the president and his secretary of state spoke with extraordinary frankness on the bitter conflict between Russia and western powers.

FAITH IS SHAKEN

For the first time publicly, Truman admitted that his faith in the attainment of a real world peace has been somewhat shaken. He said so at a White House press conference late yesterday.

Marshall, appearing last night before a meeting of the Federal Council of Churches, declared flatly that "the world is in the midst of a great crisis, inflamed by propaganda, misunderstanding, anger and fear."

Truman himself had said earlier that Americans should be careful not to let their passions get the better of them before they know all the facts.

PATTERN OF POLICY

From the president's press conference and Marshall's brief speech came the pattern of administration policy for meeting the crisis.

Here are the points which the president, the secretary—or both in some cases—stressed:

1. The European recovery program, now near final action in the Senate but awaiting debate in the House of Representatives, should be carried out promptly.

2. The United States encourages the formation of what Marshall called a political association in Western Europe as the first step to restoring stability.

OPPOSED BY U.S.

3. The spread of Communist governments anywhere in the world, including China, is opposed by the American government. Truman indicated the United States will do everything in its power to block Communism.

4. The United States will continue to work for world peace although the problem now is more difficult than at any time since the end of the Second World War.

5. Meanwhile, the American people must keep their fears and their "passions" under control in spite of what Marshall called the "distractions" of election-year campaigns at home.

COOL JUDGMENT

"At no time," Marshall told his audience of churchmen, "has it been so important for cool judgment, for an appeal to one's self for a proper sense of justice, for a realization of conditions, material, political and spiritual, in other parts of the world."

Hoof and Mouth Disease Immediate Threat in Northwest

PULLMAN, Wash., March 12.—(AP)—Hoof and mouth disease is "an immediate and serious threat" to northwest livestock, a state department agricultural official said.

Dr. H. A. Tripeer, state dairy and livestock supervisor, said Wednesday the dreaded disease could spread easily from Mexico to the northwest.

Because of drought conditions large numbers of livestock are moving out of Arizona, New Mexico and California, which border Mexico where the disease is prevalent.

Recently 4,500 cattle were brought through Oregon without a health examination, Dr. Tripper said. Oregon officials are trying to round them up and check them for disease.

Cow Pokes Ride Horseback But Not Modern "Cookie"

SPOKANE, March 12.—(AP)—Fifty Inland Empire "cowboys" will travel by horseback to the Washington Cattlemen's Association convention in Okanogan—but "Cookie" is going modern.

Alan Rogers, association president, said the 156-mile jaunt from Spokane to Okanogan will get under way May 18. Convention is scheduled for May 20-22.

A hired cook and a truck for food and bed rolls will be the only concession to modern times.

Anglo-American Film War Finds Solution

By Homer Jenks

LONDON, March 12. — (BUP) — The Anglo-American agreement repealing Britain's 75 per cent tax on foreign film profits was signed today amid plaudits from the British film industry and most of the press.

President of the Board of Trade Harold Wilson and president of the Motion Picture Association of America Eric Johnston, who negotiated the terms that ended a seven-month deadlock, signed the pact.

It ended Britain's foreign films profit tax and lifted an embargo by American producers on American films for Britain. It permits Americans to take out of Britain $17,000,000 a year, plus whatever dollars are made by British producers from films distributed in the United States, its possessions and the Philippines. The remainder of American earnings may be spent or invested anywhere in sterling areas.

PEOPLE'S VICTORY

When the agreement was signed, Johnston said it was "not a Wilson victory or a Johnston victory. It is a victory for the peoples of the United States and Britain. The war in films has been settled by mutual cooperation, goodwill and understanding, just as all wars can be settled."

Said Wilson: "This agreement holds out the prospect that British films will get a real footing in the American market."

Producer Alexander Korda hailed the agreement as assuring a bright future for British films and closer relations between the British and American film industries.

Producer Herbet Wilcox said "it will end the bad old system which led to fine British films being buried in New York vaults because nobody troubled to put them out in America."

Of course, quite a few air force personnel got their faces smashed in crack-ups. But a girl . . . well, girls have a very special feeling about their faces. And when they brought the tall slender WD corporal into hospital—one of the eight of twenty-seven left alive out of a flight that crashed between Vancouver and Prince Rupert—she was about the most unrecognizable Airwoman still breathing in this country.

They flew Helen—and Mary, another WD with a badly burned back—to Toronto's Christie Street Military Hospital, for skin grafts and burn treatment. A Red Cross worker told me she'd never forget it. The Red Cross room is in the heart of the wards, next door to the room those girls had.

For weeks workers just tiptoed in and out on their rounds—writing letters, supplying stamps, cigarettes and chocolate bars to the patients.

'No Visitors'

One operation followed another through the weary months in which doctors built a new face for Helen and treated Mary's back. The girls became great friends with the Red Cross workers. But they didn't want to meet people from the 'outside', right then. Even when the 'No Visitors' sign went down and Air Force boys and other vet. patients wheel-chaired and crutch-lapped in, they were still shy about seeing 'just people'.

The Red Cross was different. Those women in the deep blue smocks were part of their own submerged world of pain and illness, yet attached to the country outside. They did the little things the girls needed—feminine bits of shopping, letters and messages, planned small celebrations.

New Trades

As the girls progressed, going from one hospital to another for treatment, the Red Cross was always there. Supplying ambulances, at first—later, escorts to hockey games, concerts, plays. Offering quiet practical assistance whenever it was needed.

Today Helen and Mary are learning new trades. Helen can no longer teach physical education or model. Mary cannot continue her typing, because of permanently stiffened fingers. But while DVA prepares them for their new lives, the Red Cross still stands by as they do with all our Canadian veterans in hospitals everywhere. In proof that we, the people, have not forgotten.

Red Cross Services include: Blood Transfusion, Outpost Hospitals, Aid to Sick and Disabled Veterans, Treatment for Crippled Children, Disaster Relief, Nutrition Services, Home Nursing Courses, Swimming and Water Safety, etc.

AN ALERT photographer caught this aftermath of an accident in Memphis, Tenn. A truck had just struck a motorcycle. The driver slammed on his brakes, jumped from his cab (top) and raced toward the injured man. Note the motorcycle (arrow). Then the driver and other witnesses stood beside the motorcyclist (bottom) and anxiously watched for the ambulance.

Grain Marketing Control Debated

Committee Hearings Planned On Controversial Issue

OTTAWA, March 12.—(CP)—Trade Minister Howe last night in the Commons agreed to split government legislation dealing with the sale of grains into two parts to allow committee hearings on the controversial issue as to whether or not there should be controlled marketing of oats and barley.

His offer brought to an abrupt halt a debate in which a Progressive Conservative member urged that the marketing of the two feed grains be left under the Winnipeg Grain Exchange while a CCF member bespoke the determination of farmers that "this grain exchange type of legal robbery" go out of existence.

A. L. Smith (PC, Calgary West) said he woondered whether the house would be forced by "professional advocates" in some farmer organizations to pass legislation which would take from farmers their right to market their grain where they wanted.

URGES COMPULSION

G. H. Castleden (CCF, Yorkton), calling for compulsory marketing, served notice that he planned to move that the legislation be split to allow non-controversial sections dealing with an increase in the initial wheat payment to be given speedy passage.

At this point, Mr. Howe said he would agree to dividing the legislation into two parts to facilitate passages of the wheat increase sections and get the money out to prairie farmers. Sections dealing with the marketing of feed grains could go to committee.

The enabling resolution then was adopted and the bill itself.

SPEAKER SUSTAINED

Earlier the chamber voted 131 to 63 to sustain Speaker Gaspard Fauteux in his rejection of a Progressive Conservative motion that would have made a three-way split of the legislation.

The CCF group voted with the government in supporting the speaker while the Social Crediters sided with the Progressive Conservative opposition.

The decision came as the chamber prepared to resume debate on a resolution preliminary to a bill to amend the Canadian Wheat Board Act to increase the initial wheat payment, extend governmental control of interprovincial movements of wheat products and empower the wheat board to take over the marketing of coarse grains.

CONSERVATIVE MOTION

The Progressive Conservative motion, moved by Arthur Ross)PC—Souris), was in the form of an amendment to the resolution and was aimed at splitting it into three separate parts, each dealing solely with one phase of the legislation.

Speaker Fauteux ruled the amendment out of order on technical procedural grounds and Mr. Ross appealed.

JANUARY DEATH TOLL MOUNTS

OTTAWA, March 12.—(CP)—Births and marriages decreased slightly in January over January, 1947, but death took a toll 121 per cent heavier, the bureau of statistics reported yesterday.

Registration in cities, towns and villages with 10,000 or more population showed 14,353 births and 3,356 marriages compared with 14,819 and 3,662 in January last year. Deaths rose to 6,857 from 5,657.

Ban on Reds Is Confirmed

By JOHN LEBLANC

OTTAWA, March 12.—(CP)—The government's ban on the entry of alien communists into Canada was announced officially to the Commons yesterday by External Affairs Minister St. Laurent, who indicated it would apply specifically to labor-union Reds trying to enter from the United States.

Questioned for the second time this week on last Thursday's unofficial disclosure of the new move, Mr. St. Laurent confirmed that the exclusion of Reds would be exercised under existing legislation rather than through amendment to the Immigration Act.

But he gave the house no information on whether the government proposed to cancel the entry permits of U.S. Communists already in the country, despite published reports that at least one of these had been refused renewal and that the same fate is in store for others.

The minister told the Commons that the existing powers of the Immigration Act would be enforced against "known Communists, believed to be coming to Canada for the purpose of exercising here activities which under the Taft-Hartley Act they can no longer exercise in the U.S."

The Taft-Hartley measure bars Communists from office in certified labor unions. Since its passage, reports from Washington have said it was causing Red unionists to move to Canada.

Canadians Watch Nfld. Union Moves

OTTAWA, March 12.—(CP)—Prime Minister Mackenzie King said yesterday in the Commons that the outcome of the proposed referendum in Newfoundland on future forms of government will be watched with the deepest interest by the Canadian people.

Mr. King said the Canadian government had been advised by the United Kingdom that the Newfoundland people would be given an opportunity "shortly" of choosing their fcture form of government.

(When delegates of the Newfoundland commission were in Ottawa last summer discussing terms of union with Canada they said that the referendum probably could be held in May at the earliest).

Mr. King said the Newfoundland people would be asked to choose whether to continue the present commission government for five years; return to responsible government, or unite with Canada. If no form of government obtained a clear majority a second vote would be taken on the two forms receiving the largest vote.

Mr. King told how the government and Newfoundland delegates had discussed possible terms of union. Those terms, made public last October, were as far as the Canadian government felt it could go under the circumstances.

Rooming House Fire Stopped by Trio

VANCOUVER, March 12.—(CP) A mixed trio — a milkman, a one-legged war veteran and a 19-year-old girl, yesterday saved the home of 55 people when fire threatened a rooming house in downtown Vancouver.

In a smoke-filled basement, the three formed a bucket brigade, after warning the tenants, and held it from spreading until arrival of firemen. Only minor damage was caused.

Veterans Pension Bill Under Opposition Fire

By George Kitchen

OTTAWA, March 12.—(CP)—Veterans Minister Gregg promised in the Commons yesterday to give consideration to suggestions by opposition members that a permanent house committee be established to deal with the problems of veterans.

Opening debate on second reading of a bill to authorize pension increases recently announced by the government, Mr. Gregg said that while the proposal had been advanced before it was new to him, as a newcomer to the cabinet, and he would like to consider it.

Mr. Gregg said supplementary cheques covering the proposed increase, which averages between 16 and 20 per cent of the present pension will be about the equivalent of one month's pension and will be mailed by the end of this month. The increase is retroactive to Oct. 1, 1947.

The bill was given second reading, signifying approval of the principle, and sent to the committee for detailed study after a brief debate in which opposition members criticized the legislation on the ground the proposed increase was "inadequate" in the light of the rising cost of living.

Speakers included Victor Quelch (SC-Acadia), H. W. Herridge (Peoples) CCF-Kootenay West), George Cruickshank (L-Farser Valley), G. H. Castleden (CCF-Yorkton) and Rev. E. G. Hansell (SC-MacLeod).

Opening the pensions debate, Mr. Gregg recalled that a cost-of-living bonus, later included in the basic scale, was paid to veterans following the First World War and said he had been asked whether the government intended the present increase to fluctuate with the cost of living.

BASIC RATE HIGHER

He went on:

"The answer to that and similar questions is this: The government does propose in this bill an increase in the basic rate of pension and it is not intended that it should fluctuate according to the changing cost-of-living."

Mr. Cruickshank joined opposition members in arguing that the increase was insufficient and said he did not think the legislation went as far as Canada's economic position would allow the government to go.

Mr. Herridge said he hoped the committee would recommend that the increase be enlarged.

Mr. Hansell said anyone who had served in the forces should be guaranteed economic security for the rest of his life and suggested that any volunteer who had served in an actual theatre of war should be exempt from all taxation.

Mr. Quech argued that the bill fell short of the expectations of veterans and urged the government give assurance the measure was not the last word in pensions legislation for this session.

Mr. Castleden said the increased cost of living made it impossible for most veterans to get along on their present allowances and underlined the need for the committee to recommend a larger pension boost.

Queen Wilhelmina Advised to Rest

THE HAGUE, March 12.—(Reuters)—Queen Wilhelmina has been advised by her physician to restrict her activities to urgent affairs of state at least until after Easter, it was announced yesterday. The queen, who has been suffering from fatigue, this year celebrates the golden jubilee of her reign.

FREAK AIR ACCIDENT INJURES STUDENT

MOOSE JAW, Sask., March 12.—(CP)—A 20-year-old flying student, George Mitenko, was injured yesterday when his aircraft was caught in the slipstream of a second aircraft, did a double flip in the air and then landed right side up.

The unusual accident occurred at the south air port here when Mitenko, making his first solo flight, was gliding in for a landing with his motor cut off.

It was reported the second machine, flown by Jack Rose, 25, of Regina and carrying a patient for hospital, passed under Mitenko's aircraft. The latter was caught in the slipstream while the pilot lost control.

Mitenko was taken to hospital suffering head cuts and a broken nose. His aircraft, a Cessna 120, single engine, was damaged.

Company Claims Loss On Former Bread Price

By John Leblanc

OTTAWA, March 12.—(CP)—Closing the first phase of its inquiry into higher bread charges, the Commons price committee was told yesterday one bakery concern raised its bread price in January because it had been steadily losing money since last June.

This evidence came from the George Weston Bread and Cakes, Ltd., of Toronto, as the investigators prepared to swing the spotlight of their inquiry, now in its fifth week, to butter. Hearings on butter will open Monday.

Today committee members will hear the case of consumers, and several organizations are due to give evidence of the impact of rising prices on the household budget.

Yesterday, Harold B. Manning of Toronto, vice-president and managing director of Weston's, told the committee his company had lost $200,000 last year and had lost more than $18,000 in January of this year. It was late in January that its bread price was increased by one cent.

For November, December and January, Mr. Manning said, the company had lost between 36 and 37 cents on every loaf it made.

"In the face of this evidence, there is not much profiteering in this case," commented Health Minister Martin, committee chairman.

C. E. Johnston (SC—Bow River) said the Weston company was selling its bread as high as other companies.

"Doesn't that denote the keenest of competition?" asked Mr. Manning, referring to previous evidence by Prices Board Chairman K. J. Taylor that competition brought about identical prices.

"I don't know whether it does, or whether it denotes a combine," Mr. Johnston returned.

EASTER RECESS PROVES PROBLEM

Thumb-Twiddling, Delay Arouse Senator's Ire

OTTAWA, March 12.—(CP)—Senator William Duff (L—Nova Scotia) had a few things to say yesterday about adjournments, thumb-twiddling, fingernail-biting and "getting into trouble" during long week-ends.

The Newfoundland-born, ruddy-faced senator, whose nickname, "The Admiral" has followed him from his Lunenburg home to the floor of the Red Chamber, lashed out too at certain wordy "young fellows" in the Commons.

He even went on record as willing to work Sundays—"although I am a Presbyterian"—and topped things by suggesting the Senate give itself a 27-day Easter holiday, 22 days more than the Commons' proposed adjournment.

The 75-year-old senator spoke his piece after Senator Wishart Robertson, government leader, outlined the Easter possibilities. No decision was made.

"If I understood him rightly," smiled Senator Duff, "he is not quite sure as to when it should begin."

The Commons' five-day adjournment would be "quite proper—because goodness knows honorable members of that place have wasted enough time all session doing nothing."

But senators "waiting to attend to business" should not be forced to commute between Ottawa and their homes "just so that we may wait around here for certain people elsewhere to get their work through."

He admitted—speaking of adjournments in general—that "we are a happy family here and those of us whose homes are a long distance from Ottawa do not mind waiting around here from Thursday night until Tuesday night while our Ontario and Quebec colleagues are away."

"During those long week-ends we have nothing to do but twiddle our thumbs and bite our fingernails."
